Miss Q's Gossies Challenge Team, — Champions Back to Back! —

On Sunday June 29th twenty of Miss Q's finest headed to Gosnells Pot Black to claim yet another away win and once again secure our trophy and bragging rights over Gossies.

It was the strongest all round team that Miss Q's had fielded yet against the Gosnells team and as it turned out they were expecting us. To my surprise the Gossies team was by far the toughest side we've had to face yet, so with two full sides of strong, competent hitters we got down to some match play. The opening rounds saw some heavy losses on both sides with much talk happening around the tables about which side might be in front, this was gonna be close. After 60 frames of tough match play there was less than a 10 frame lead in Miss Q's favour. At the half way mark the lead in our favour was even closer and it was time for a big push and a strong finish, so that's what we did. Heres how close it was after 12 rounds a total of 240 frames there was only 22 frames the difference Miss Q's WINS! YAY, The top Scorer of the day was Dave Barker from Gossies with 11 wins Ivan Vudrag also a Gossie 10 wins, with our own Jimmi Homewood the highest scorer of the day for Miss Q's also with 10 wins, Bulldog & Stenhouse with 9 wins a piece. So with our trophy in hand we all boarded the bus for one last ride in "Nancy" and with Shandy Ellis at the wheel returned home victorious once again. Congrats to all who played gossies come to us next time check our website for qualifying dates if you want to be part of the next Gossies Challenge. Az

With the last round of elite just about to start I cant express enough how important the next 10 weeks will be for some teams. With the rain setting in I find myself wet and cold so stay rugged up cos it isn't fun playing pool with a runny nose or a headache so try stay away from the flu... a big congrats to Brittany Ann Trefort and the fozmeister on becoming a couple again. With Tuesday night blue league evolving into its own league and restarting again the next 23 weeks on Tuesdays will be fun with some very strong players in that league. A very big congrats to the money shots for taking out the doubles and singles on the old Tuesday league, lets see if we can do it again. With Skips and my comp for the derby pool off coming to an end the winner will be very happy to see the loser in the Dockers colors (ha-ha jokes skip jokes). Well peoples of the great yellow building I will see ya on the table and let your aim be strait and your sexuality ;-)... Wait I need some of my magic pixie dust.... Let's start with the team captain Jane or as most of you would know her by Janie or Straps, she has been playing pool at Miss Q's for nearly 6 years and for most of that time doing fundraising for the venue and running around corrupting most players by playing with her boobs. Next Tamara who is also known as Mara she has been playing at Miss Q's for 6 years were she met her fiancé Nick Powers. Next is Mel she has been playing pool for 2 and a half years and when she isn't playing pool she is looking after her beautiful girl Aaliyah, who is also one of the Pussy Power cheerleaders. We then have Mandy our chick from Darwin, she's only been playing a short time but when she does play watch out for some of the shots, because she can play. Then we have Cara our beautiful subby, she's loud and you can always tell when she is here and defiantly one of our most bubbly players. Now we come to Shalako she has been playing pool for nearly 2 years and her game keeps getting better each week she plays and she is never to far from her fiancé Rob Stewart. Then the Claire, she has only been playing pool a short time but already getting 6/6 each week after week, she also has her son Jack how plays for the Midget Assassins and she's never to far away for a booby grab. Last but not least we have Rangi, she's been playing pool at Miss Q's for a year you can defiantly tell when she's here as she's been known to run around with her pom poms cheering on the Pussy Power.
