MPF UPDATE

Well since I last spoke to you all about MPF we have found our winners for the MPF raffle, and must say straight up that it was not rigged as some people have said. The raffle draw occurred on May 3rd, and we had the beautiful Michelle Elkin draw out the lucky numbers. The first ticket was pulled and third place went to Michael Boon who won the free hire of the function room, then second went to Eddie Jenkins who won the cue, and know the big one. There was intense silence as Michelle pulled out the final ticket, and the winner was Bulldog, yes Miss Q's very own Bulldog who one the mini coca cola bar fridge.

The raffle was a huge success with MPF making $128.00 profit. A huge thank you to everyone who bought tickets and best of luck in the future raffles.

So far MPF has raised $212.00 profit which is a huge effort and I can't wait to see how much it is going to grow throughout the year. At the moment we have a few more fundraisers happening at the moment with the main fundraiser being the autographed Jack Halligan Cue. This was generously

Miss Q's Mischievous Girls

Well as most of you would know, some of us ladies at Miss Q's LOVE to get up to mischief and one night whilst playing pool we decided that us girls need a night out and what better way then going to the strippers. So we picked a date which ended up being May 3rd and decided what better to start the night then with a toy party at mine first.

On the night everyone started to arrive around 5:30pm and you could tell that the drinking had all ready begun. The funniest thing was when the actual demonstration began, as we had more males at my place then females. As all the different toys, potions and lotions were being passed around some of the boys wouldn't touch anything. Now this surprised a lot of us girls as the ones that refused to touch were the most loud and outrageous people of the group. Well at least we now know who is afraid of plastic. (It's all good Bulldog, I won't mention names).

The night started to fly and we decided it was time to head to Miss Q's for the MPF draw, so we all got on board Nancy with our lovely drivers Killer and Jamie Heard. We arrived at Q's and did the draw, had a few shots before the happy snaps and heading to Perth for the boys at Collars and Cuffs. One of the most interesting parts of the night was the bus trip up to Perth, and I do apologize to the Jamie and Killer who had to stop themselves from looking into the mirrors as the girls one the back of the bus were making the night of some drivers in the cars behind us by flashing what ever they could the whole way to Perth. Now the scary part of this is one of the cars followed us from Mandurah to the Canning Highway exit. Then we finally arrived at the Penthouse Night Club where Collars and Cuffs is held made our way up to where we were greeter by some half dressed very nice looking blokes (You know what we're talking about ladies). We had an absolute ball of a time watching men dance around half naked, holding themselves horizontally on poles and simply shaking the butts. Oh and the best thing of all was the house rules. The first rule was no photos, a bit disappointing but could handle, then rule 2 and 3, have fun and we were allowed to touch. Oh yes and some of us took full advantage of that touching every butt that we could possibly could.

The night was coming to a close and they drew the lucky door prize, in which I won. Know as this is a family venue, use your imagination on what was in the pack!!!!

After that it was time to head home, and I must say that the trip home was very quiet and long as we had one very sick puppy on board and we had to pull over for her a few times.

Anyways, all in all, it was a great night and fun was had by all. Thank you to everyone that helped organize and to those who constantly reminded me of my kryptonite. Janey.

Miss Q's Player Fund Update Continued:

throughout the night including speedball, Killer pool and cut throat. And finally for this month we also have the Miss Q's birthday knockout challenge being held on Sunday the 15th at 2pm. It will cost $20 entry which includes play from midday and 95% of the profits making up the prize fund and 5% of the profits coming to MPF. Once again thank you to everyone who has donated to MPF in one way or another. Janey - MPF Coordinator

AROUND THE TABLES WITH BULLDOG

Hello all you pool aholics out there and welcome to another edition of how to kill a mocking bird ... just kidding.

Bulldog the Aussie made Princess

But I am here to tell you all about the month ahead and what a big month we have from our 6th birthday around the corner and that will be a big weekend with Friday night elite training and with JR one of the Victorians champs.

Saturday is our birthday and I think we all know what is going on when Saturday night hits.... DRAG QUEENS LOL.

Sunday you can catch two Australian pool legends coaching some of Miss Q's own players just be here by open 12 noon that finishes at 2pm then our Miss Qs birthday knockout comp starts.

And tonight we have in Miss Qs the number 1 and number 2 premier pool leagues members what a thrill.

And coming up at the end of June is the Gossies challenge where we take on Gosnells pot black and IF we all stay all stay a little bit sober we might have a chance and keeping our trophy.

And when life is hard and your feeling down turn around and find a homeless man because his life is bad so stop complaining....
