Editorial:

As 2008 draws to a speedy close, I come to you with Christmas well wishes and a tonne of exciting news. So much has happened in the Premier & Miss Q's world since our last newsletter, we boast six pages of content this issue. Starting with a little reflection over the events that have been, we have the terrific journeys of our top six elite teams as they experienced their first ever Elite Finals Carnival. The Miss Q's Classic tournament drew some great players and was a very enjoyable comp for both Men & Ladies. The inaugural Billy Weston's Challenge was a smash hit with many of our players experiencing their first ever challenge match. Social League Finals also kept Leagues busy and what a party was had by our Halloween Revellers, everyone got in the spirit and the spookiness of the night was well represented by the great costumes everyone wore. We saw Jes & Cliff Risk tie the knot at last, congrats guys and we celebrated many birthdays including Midget Assassin Eddie Jenkins 17th. And this has all happened before the festive season celebrations kick off! First up we have the final Gossies Challenge for 08 On Sunday Dec 7th and our players are pumped & chomping at the bit to retrieve our Challenge Champion Status. Then Dec 20th is the Xmas Presentation Party with free pool, food & alcohol this is don't miss event. Our Final League night is Dec 24th returning on Jan 5th. THE 2008 PREMIER ELITE FINALS CARNIVAL

2008 Premier Elite Champions Team Razzlers

After a gruelling season of League Play, the second weekend in November saw the top six Elite Teams come together for the first time to do battle in the Premier Elite Finals Carnival. This $25,000.00 Tournament did not disappoint, with the Singles Championship being held on the Friday night, seeing some classic match play with veteran Chris Tedbury taking out the Championship and that Chick Kerry de Pradines coming in 2nd, Keith Cater 3rd & Michael Sammut 4th. Saturday & Sunday saw the Teams play off with every team playing each other in a round robin format. Teams accumulated points over the duration of the weekend and after each player had played 72 frames of pool there was a clear team of Champions. Congratulations to the Razzlers who took out the 2008 Premier Elite Championship convincingly, a well deserved win to a very committed team, who's players travelled from Perth & beyond every week of the season to secure their spot in the finals. Second this year went to the Miss Q's home grown team and a huge crowd favourite, the Money Shots. This team deserves great recognition for their efforts as the majority of the Money Shots were first time Elite Players & their Captain Damien Baldock was a first time Captain. The Money Shots took out Think Pot who finished third, also a great team made up of

Singles Champion
Chris Tedbury

Player Of the Carnival
Levi Congdon

2008 Premier Elite Runners Up The Money Shots

some of Peel Pool's A grade Players and the only team to make finals captained by a Lady, the gorgeous Naomi Wightman. 4th place went to Fire & Ice Captained by long time member Gary Kalbus, 5th to the all impressive team of Miss Q's juniors the Midget Assassins who turned the heads of many adult pool players and scared the life out of most of them, hehehe... And finally the 6th place was taken by the B & D's half boys & half girls also Captained by a first timer Mark Windsor.

The mighty Razzlers secured their trip to New Zealand and in 2009 we wish them all the best in their endeavours to reclaim the Premier/NZ Challenge trophy the Kiwis have kept since 2002.

The 2008 Premier Elite Season was by far the most exciting and well supported that WA had seen & the 2009 Season promises to be bigger & better again with three Elite nights available & an increased prize fund of $33,500.00. Whilst the Summer Elite seasons have only just begun teams are already talking about who's playing with who in the 2009 Season that commences in the first week of April.

I would like to congratulate every Elite player on the 2008 campaign especially the Champions of the event, enjoy the read on the following pages of the top six teams 2008 Elite Experience. Catch you all on the tables. Kez.

The Razzlers

Hey everyone! Michael Sammut here, captain of the Razzlers for winter Elite. What a season this has been for us! It started by me telling all of our team members that it only went for 10 weeks. That was hard enough for me to convince a team of 6 players to travel all the way from Perth every Thursday to play pool in a league they knew nothing about. We all came down to Miss Q's on the first night and that was the first time we all heard that it actually went for 29 weeks plus finals. I think a few of the players wanted to kill me but I had to convince the team that it was worth it and we had a good chance of winning!

Over the 29 weeks a lot of the players in our team who didn't really know each other to begin with, became really good friends so there was a transition of 6 pool players to one team! We all got to know each others abilities and were able to work with each other to be as strong as we could for finals.

We got to know a lot of the regulars at Mandurah and we had come up against some very good match play. Everything happened on the table from 1 minute pot outs to 30 minute games of chess. I am sure there was a lot learnt not only for us but for a lot of our opponents. Over the next few years a lot of the players from other teams are going to develop into some seriously competitive opponents and I hope to see some of you at the state trials in Perth!

Throughout the season we were all very positive and thought we could take it out, and when it came to finals we were all playing at our best. We had a very advantageous draw during the weekend carnival where we were able to build up enough of a lead on the Saturday to be able to work out what we needed to do on the Sunday to win the league. It would have been one of the most enduring match's of pool that we have done, starting at midday til 10 - 11pm at night...it really takes it out of you!

By the end of the weekend we were all exhausted, and I think we were happy that it was over (didn't have to drive home from Mandurah at midnight any more) and to win the 2008 Premier Elite Carnival we were all over the moon! I would like to thank my team for all the effort that they have put in over the past 30 or so weeks and together we made it over the line! Our next challenge is to try to get the trophy back from the Kiwis onto our home turf!

I would like to say thankyou to Miss Q's as well as Premier Elite Pool Leagues for the opportunity that we have been given.

Shots for second spot in the overall tally. The Money Shots had some highs and some lows but in the end we came out a second placed team out of the 19 strong teams. We had a great year and even if we didn't come second the Money Shots and I had a fun filled year and we will be back next year to facial every team possible. Captain - Bulldog

THINK POT

Winter Elite was an awesome experience for me. I got to be Captain to a fantastic team and I learnt a lot about the game. Congrats to Chris Tedbury who finished on top of the singles ladder for the season and for ultimately winning the Elite Singles Championship. It was awesome playing on a fantastic team in a great League. Unfortunately we were beaten in the Grand Final, but we had a great night trying, with the Grand Final finishing just after 1am. Congrats to the Razzlers who's only loss was to us early in the season. Best of luck to Michael & his team as the take on N.Z.

Captain - Naomi Whightman

FIRE & ICE

Well another season has come and gone. We started off with a bang, team wise, and then like a lot of other teams the wheels started to fall off. People who made the commitment and then did not follow through but we finally managed to get our act together and had an enjoyable time. The challenges we had from the other teams involved made us work for every frame that was won. Most players played the game in the right spirit and we had a lot of fun. Unfortunately a small minority were out to win at all costs but it still did not dampen the enjoyment we had. Feel that most of us improved our skills by playing at this level and developed a respect for the other players. All in all it was a very enjoyable competition and carnival, and I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate everybody who was involved, from the players to the organisers, for a very enjoyable season. So hone your cues and good luck for next year. Captain - Gary Kalbus.

MONEY SHOTS

Two thousand and eight might have been the year of the dog somewhere but when I put a team called the Money Shots together I wasn't expecting to finish second. Behind the Money Shots where a bunch of Aussie blokes that bonded over 2007/2008 and became one of Miss Q's most popular teams in the 2008 Elite season. We started off with a few training sessions and a lot of drinks.... And I mean a lot of drinks. Our first game was against the more challenging team of think pot (third place) and with a close game with the Shots coming out victories we kicked off the season nicely. After 27 long hard weeks playing some of Mandurah's best players we sat second on the league table of Thursday night elite. We played Think pot in the final with the winner playing the Razzlers in the grand final we let ourselves down with a 17 to 9 shock loss. But we took our money and went to smithy's to get blind and not see we did.. we kept our hope up and our spirits with a lot more alcohol and when the carnival came around we where mostly hung over but that help me (Bulldog) and Shandy Ellis. We stated off with the Midgets then Think pot and last but not least the B and D's after the first day I was very close to the top of the singles ladder and the team sitting third and we were trying to chase down the pots in second. We had a few players in average form and Toothy in shocking form but to his credit when we needed a player to stand up and take some game we had him taking 10 against Fire and Ice. With the crowd getting behind the Shots and Pete Raines the biggest (I should know) and loudest mouth there the Shots came home strong with our favorite chant "COME ON THE RAZZLERS.. BACK" lol only joking we were trying to stop them cheering for their team and it worked. We couldn't beat the Razzlers for first they were way to strong for my first year team but we weren't giving up for second. We kicked home taking some games off the Razzlers with my last two games securing the Money

MIDGET ASSASSINS

I wanna be a Midget when I grow up!

Premier Elite Winter Season 2008, add a bunch of newbie kids, teach them some rules, give them cue, a little coaching & let them loose on a field of unsuspecting seasoned leagueies. "The (My) Midget Assassins" as their name suggests, small & dangerous, unlike their aspirations. As the season progressed so did their ability and soon found them sitting comfortably near the top of the ladder. The team was made of eight boys Kyle Van Zon (captain) Eddy Jenkins, Ben Jenkins, Jack Marsh, Stewie (princess) Lambert, Shane Vaaelua, Logan Van Zon, Mikey Read & occasionally their coach. Week by week they played the field winning some rounds and losing others only to come back the next week stronger than ever before. In the last round of the season with 9 weeks to play they still held a high spot on the ladder & were 4th when finals came around and starting to be perceived as real threat to the cash pool Hmmm Assassins indeed J. Come first round finals the team had suffered some losses to the side and only Eddy, Ben, Jack, Stewie, Shane & Logan remained, none the less they played some of the most amazing pressure pool I think I will ever see, the atmosphere was awesome! The crowd showed up in impressive numbers to chant "C'MON THE MIDGETS", and help the assassins across the line frame after intense frame and all the way to third place in Sunday Elite finals and more importantly into the Elite Carnival to play for the trip to New Zealand. So finally the Midgets got the chance to play the other half of Elite and play them they did. Day 1 of the carnival was a grueling day of play for the midgets drawing all 3 Thursday teams straight up. (Ouch!) My "Assassins" although a bit nervous didn't let me down, they did superbly and surprised everyone they came up against in a variety of ways and from all accounts impressed their opposition as much as they impressed me. Day 2 saw a few more wins and a few less nerves with some familiar foes the "B&D's" & "Fire & Ice" and at the end of play the "Midget Assassins" placed 5th out of 6 teams in the carnival making them 5th out of the 19 elite teams that played in the '08' season.

Just want to say in closing, that this was an amazing experience for me. Every week I got a buzz out of being able to present this group of "Tiny Giants" to play against everyone that took part in Elite this year, a big thank you to everyone who was their opposition for being so good as to take them under your wings. Another big thanks to the parents, for your ongoing support and graciousness. And finally a massive thanks to the Midgets for your efforts, spirit and tenaciousness I've enjoyed every minute of this season thank you. Stay with the game you'll go far. Captain -Az

THE B&D'S

Once upon a time there was a bunch of leftovers in the fridge of life. They had a weird and slightly twisted idea of forming a Sunday

Elite Pool League team, and in an interesting twist of fate it freakin worked!!

After a butt load of effort getting a "stable" team together and making sure everyone qualified for finals, we were set to rock Sunday nights, and we did! We finished 2nd on the ladder. Finals night arrived and after an ass whooping by fire and ice in the preliminary round we had to assassinate the midgets then put out the fire and melt the ice to come thru and take out the Grand Final!

Bring on the carnival! The leftovers were then reheated, but as usual the money shots made a substantial withdrawal and left us with half a team. But like reheated leftovers we repeated and repeated and eventually were eaten up and well you know the rest!!

The first Weekend in November saw some of WA's keenest Pool players congregate for the 4th Miss Q's Classic. A few of the usual suspects were absent this year due to the National Titles falling on the same weekend. Justin Sajich & Sue Bussanich the 2007 Champs were unable to defend their titles this year but were hard at it on the tables in Tassy. After a very exciting Player auction before the start of Play on the Saturday, where the Men generated a $760 prize Fund & the Women a $168.75 prize find, the round robin sectional play commenced. Players were competing for their seeding spots for the Knockout Comp the following day. The total Miss Q's Classic Prize Pool for 2008 saw the Ladies competing for $400.00 and the men a neat $935.00. For the first time the Sunday Knockout to decide the eventual Champion was held as a double elimination Comp entitling all players to a second chance if they lost before the Grand Final. Games were very close amongst the top players in the field and for those first timers who entered, they gained great tournament experience. The ladies finals saw Joelene Grabbi take on Kerry de Pradines and after all games going down to the wire Kerry got up on Joelene 5-3. The men's was a scorcher with new comer Phil Rathman taking on two time runner up Darren Morris, Darren scored huge support from the gallery and with the scores at 4 all the decider had the entire room entranced & on edge. Darren pulled a rabbit out of his hat to produce one of the most incredible clearances to eventually become the 2008 Men's Miss Q's Classic Champion. After a great weekend of play and social catch ups, the final results were as follows. Ladies: 1st Kerry de Pradines 2nd Joelene Grabbi, 3rd Haylie Bryant & 4th DeArne Tibbles. Men's: 1st Darren Morris, 2nd Phil Rathman, 3rd Evan Ray & 4th Damien Baldock. A special Mention goes to Simon Gray who was the Best Junior player of the event. Congratulations to all 2008 participants, the Miss Q's Cast and Crew look forward to seeing you all again for the 5th Miss Q's Classic to be held on the First weekend in November in 2009. Happy Potting until then.

Did I Hear Right? - Dancers Playing Pool???

On Friday the 21st November the Dianne Wood School of Dancing, had there pool fundraiser. The fundraiser was ran by Dushenka and Kerry, the reason for the fundraiser was to raise money for there trip to America next year.

There are 80 dancers and their families traveling to the states next year for their Dancing to Broadway. The trip is for 16days with the girls dancing at Disneyland, Universal Studios and in New York, with 9 private dance workshops with some of the dancing worlds most prestigious companies. The girls will experience behind the scenes makings of massive ballet productions, and witness the back lots of Universal Studios where a lot of famous films are made. The girls also have the opportunity to be part of the Disney parade at Disneyland.

Dianne being the principal of the dance school has organized this once in a lifetime experience for these young and very talented dancers, this is every dancers dream to dance around the world on stages that people from all over the world will see.

This sort of experience is extremely hard to accomplish, so with the help of sponsors and fundraisers we are able to do it.

The fundraiser help here at Miss Q's was the one of the most fun fundraisers according to our parents within our school and was a great success, raising $480, this couldn't have been done without the help from Kerry and we thank you so much.

Keep an eye out for our next one in February 2009.

MPF UPDATE

Well what a big month it has been for Miss Q's and MPF, we've had the stand at the forum, Halloween, Elite finals and of course the Miss Q's classic. Whilst we had the stand at the forum Kez suggested that we show the public some of our ladies and kids that play at Miss Q's. So on Thursday 23/10/08 we held an exhibition match set to the elite format. As they weren't the true elite teams, we came up with new names and we came up with The Tinkerbells Vs The PeeWees. It was great fun and we had plenty of passer by's who stopped and watched a few games and cheered on everyone who was playing. In the end the PeeWees ended up beating us by one game, but we definitely had some fun. During the week at the forum we also had a raffle going with the first place being a cue/case and a years free Miss Q's membership, Second a nights free function room hire and a years free Membership, and third winning one nights table hire and a key ring. From that, MPF ended up raising $23.00. The winners of the raffle were in 1st place Joseph Warrick, 2nd place Sean Griffith and in 3rd was Claire Marsh.

MPF also had money donated to it from Miss Q's with the Miss Q's Classic and the Calcutta, in which from the entries from the classic there was $66.25 and from the Calcutta $94.75 was donated. A huge thank you to everyone who had taken part in all of the comps and for your support to Miss Q's and MPF.

Well it's also time for me to say farewell to MPF, as due to personal commitments I am going to be passing it over to Kez, in which there are going to be a few people running various things to raise money for you guys. I'd like to thank everyone who has helped me over the past year and for those that are wondering about the 34 hour challenge; I will still be running that twice a year.

I have also included this month the financial in's and out's for MPF since I started, so you can see where MPF is financially.

- $66.25 Miss Q's Classic entries (02/11/08)
- $94.75 Miss Q's Classic Calcutta (03/11/08)
- $23.00 Forum Raffle (23/10/08)
- $16.00 Queens Birthday bash (14/09/08)
- -$200.00 MPF 24 Hr Challenge (31/08/08)

- $14.00 Foundation day challenge (02/06/08)

Halloween '08 Haunts Miss Q's

Beatings and Mutilations, Its Emz here reporting on our 3rd Halloween Night at Miss Q's. I'd like to thank all of the freakish night dwellers that joined the ghoulish Miss Q's pack on the grave yard shift for Halloween on October 31st. Seeing all of the awesome outfits really brought the Pool Hall to life.

Entering the spirit of the night was everyone from an Executioner, Black Fairy, Dead Cop, our very own Dexter and there was even an appearance from Batman's Joker, Death made an entrance and someone is going to get in trouble at the zoo for letting one of their Gorilla's loose !!

Congratulations to The Executioner, Josh and The Bad Black Fairy, Beth for winning best dressed on the night. Also to the runners up Dead Cop, Chelsie and Morticia, Michelle for the ladies and The Joker, Bender and Gorilla Man, Shannon for the men. To everyone else who dressed up thank you very much without you there wouldn't be the atmosphere and fun that is Halloween, and for everyone who showed their support by being there thank you.

For this event to happen, months of preparation go into organising not only the prizes but the decorations as well. Due to the sheer size of the decorations I'd like to thank everyone who helped me especially my mum or as you all know her 'Ma' I wouldn't have been able to do this without you.

A big thanks also has to go Scuzi's and Greenfields Liquor for supplying us with great prizes for the night and thanks to Kez for letting us run loose on one of the best nights of the year. Stay tuned for our next Theme night which is Miss Q's Birthday and we are having a HOLLYWOOD theme so get those thinking caps on.

Until next time, Emz.

Great Sport Ben Royans doing the dash up Scarborough Beach Rd with Biff the Banana, Miss Q's Billy's Challenge Mascot, after receiving a pantsing from the tough Billy's Team

Billy's Challenge Qualifier Champ & Runner Up Jarrad Page & Sasha Fenwick for Miss Q's

It was that time again when Miss Q's takes 20 of our most energetic players to challenge another pool hall, only this time it wasn't Gosnells. Billy Westerns pool hall which is based in Perth, decided that they wanted in on the action and so between Kez and Mel, who is Billy's chick in charge they picked the date and it was on!!

This time round was a little different to our Gosnells challenges as half of our squad was filled with new comers, in which half of that was made up of Midgets.

So one the 12th of October, 21 players car pooled up to Perth, and let's just say that that was an adventure in itself, you try driving 4 young teenage boys to Perth. Just before we left though we were informed that if anyone got pants they would have to do a lap with "BIF" our banana mascot which was donated by Fozzie, Cheers Foz!!

We finally arrived and we ready to go, after a few practise games, it was on. After the first few rounds we realised we were up for a challenge. So we pulled together and paired up to cheer each other on and you all know how loud I am, well picture hearing that in an old hall.

By round 3 Billy's had doubled our score 20 – 40 and we had our first pantsing with Stewie doing the first run with 'BIF' the banana along Scarborough Beach Road. Round 4 came and went with and ass flogging but then round 5 approached us and it seemed we where winning finally, but ended up drawing with them, which in it's self was a top effort, even with another pantsing to Ben who gracefully did the lap with 'BIF' and not long after him Ryan Aukema did the run with our big banana. Well after round 5, we thought we could start to catch up, but they were unbeatable on the day and flogged us in round 6 and 7. I must add how ever, our very own Sasha ended up pantsing one of Billy's players. And boy it was great to see one of there players doing the run with our mascot.

Despite that Billy's nearly doubled our score in the end with a 91 – 49 win, everyone had an absolute blast and it had the atmosphere of the very first challenge which was all about having fun and meeting new people.

I must say congrates to Evan Ray whom some of you have meet before through Gozzies as he had won all of his games though the day.

Also a big thankyou to both Kezza and Mel for organising a wonderful day and it was defiantly fun and great to play some new and very experienced.

On a final note guys don't forget that our next challenge is against Gosnells Pot Black and by the way, "Bring It On!!" as Tony and I will be playing for Gosnells this time round. C'mon Gozzies. Seriously don't forget to put your names down for the Gosnells challenge coming up. Janie.
