

Play the Table

Vol 10. No.8 September 2009

Editorial:

What a Fantastic month on & off the tables! Especially for the All Stars having another guest coach, Gordon Whittaker spend time with them & putting in a huge effort with their cue raffle raising good funds for the MPF.

Then the Gossies were on our doorstep and this Challenge was a special one with Antonio holding his breath the entire day to see if he was going to loose his chest hair or not. You guessed, he lost it!!! check out the fantastic lead story this month and stay tuned for the all new DRAG challenge Az & Antonio are cooking up :-)

Az & I also managed to squeeze in a quick trip to QLD to witness Brent & Amy Williams beautiful Wedding, congrats guys, and drop in on Zeljko Kochev to see how the all new Premier range of cues are made, check out the back page for the Croatian Sensation story.

Also a big congrats to Claire & Melmoe on their very successful Junior Comps gaining a terrific following, now we just need to get the ladies motivated, remember Kid & Girls the first Saturday of each month is your knockout Comp!

Coming up at the end of Sept is the Rossi Boots Major in Geraldton & with around 12 Miss Q's players entered there should be some great stories in the next issue.

Finally the Queen's Birthday Cup Comp is on Monday September 28th, Double Elimination, enter at the bar.

Cheers til next month - Kez

Happy Potting

Antonio Looses His Hairs for The Love of the Game!

Gossies Challenge

Hair today Gone Tomorrow

Hello all, I'd just like to start this report on the latest Gossies Challenge by saying,

Ha Har Har Har Cough, cough, cough Wheeze, Argh, PHEW!

I've gotta say that losing doesn't feel so bad knowing that the General of the winning Army paid a heavy price for Victory. To bring everyone who is not "In the Know" into the picture I must now explain what I'm on about, instead of just ranting like an excited lunatic. Ok big deep breath. Some time ago "Antonio" of Pot Black Gosnells fame, intent on spurring on his team, offered as incentive, his chest hair, for waxing if three consecutive wins were recorded in Gosnells favour. Many moons passed and Gosnells kept coming up empty handed suffering some severe beatings at the hands of the rightfully dominant Miss Q's team, until one day the tide turned and Gosnells handed out their own thrashing or two, now three in a row, hence my hysteria. Antonio for those of you who don't know is by all accounts an exceptionally hairy human being, whose chest possessed easily a hundred times more hair than the top of my head, (many would say not that hard) so as you can imagine this was likely a very intense and painful exercise for Antonio, a notion that brings me much joy (BIG SMILES) and chuckles ha ha ha, can't wait to see the photos, fingers crossed they are full of expressions of horror and agony :-). Phew!

Funny. Anyways enough gloating about our loss? Win? Loss, not sure which? The days game play was fierce with a very tight score line, the days win able to go either side all the way until the last rounds of the day, but much to the dismay of the apparently fearless, Antonio his side WON the aforementioned battle in a contest that was worthy of the occasion, only three rounds proving to be the clincher for Gosnells favour, nearly everything else tied, 12 rounds, round for round. Seems Antonio's hair was destined to be separated from his chest even if it required the intervention of the gods. The three top players of the day all tied on 11 from a possible 12 wins and all players were from Gosnells and had to play off to find an eventual player of the match. The showdown was between Andy B, Gary B and John G who proved to be the eventual winner, congratulations and thanks John, well played. So having said all that it just leaves me wondering a few things, if Gosnells win another 3 matches in a row what does Antonio offer next B+S+C ??? And with his chest hair gone how does he know where to stop shaving??? And where can I find the video so I can upload it to You Tube??? So stay tuned for the next Gossies Challenge which is slated for December so be sure to get your name down for the qualifier and be a part of what is sure to be our next victory. P.S For the record I did my part and didn't throw a single game, regardless of what Antonio says.

Premier ALL STARS

Hey players and patrons,

Well it was a solid month for the All Stars, we started out with training days for the month then in the third week of August we had our coaching clinic with Gordon Whittaker, he is a very talented pool player and has a wealth of knowledge in the game, everybody found him to be very helpful and with everyone receiving one on one match play against him he was able to give individuals hints, tips and help them fix what they were doing wrong in the aspects of their game, and a bonus to come of the coaching lesson is that Gordon has accepted the challenge of assembling a very strong city side to face the All Stars twice a year, once at Miss Q's and once at the Italian club in Northbridge. So a big Thankyou to Gordon and wish him all the best. Since then we been training and we have been planning a 13 hour fundraiser to be held Saturday the 12th September at Miss Q's. We will have plenty of activities and fun planned for the day with a car wash and sausage sizzle as well, so come down and get your car washed, grab a snag and bun and join in with the activities of the day, it will run from 12pm-1am and all proceeds going to the M.P.F. and a lot of fun to be had on the day. There are currently 2 ladies spots vacant in the Premier All Stars, so if you are female and are a dedicated pool player please come and see me at anytime and we'll have a chat. Other than that we will keep training hard as we have our 2nd challenge against Peel Pool Association All Stars coming up very shortly which will be a very hard challenge as there is plenty of talented players in Peel Pool. One last thing I'd like to mention is To SIR TINSALOT / THE TIN KING if you stop jaggng shots well stop calling you tinny lol, - take it easy guys – FEARLESS LEADER PETER RAINES

Premier Academy of Cue Sports

Coaching, & All Stars Update.

In yet another action packed month for the All Stars we had our third guest coach arrive in the form of Gordon Whittaker who spent the day with the team showing everyone a thing or two, about ball control/selection some useful learning for anyone looking to further their game, Gordon had one of the most impressive short games I've ever seen his position was very very good and is the very thing I aspire to have as part of my game someday soon, Thank You, Gordon your input is appreciated by all who attended and I'm sure everyone is looking forward to many more coaching sessions in the future, but for now the All Stars are calling all cue sport enthusiasts to answer the call, NOW Every Sunday from 3pm at Miss Q's we give you the opportunity to pick the brains of not only myself but also of the soon to be world famous Premier

All Stars the only group of it's type anywhere in the world (almost, perhaps, maybe). Guest Coaches for The All Stars have so far included the likes of Jack Halligan, Dan Whitehorn, & Gordon Whittaker, with each coach displaying and imparting to the All Stars their own slant on the game and how they use the table to their advantage, next month The All Stars are looking forward to some serious one on one time with one of the games true legends the one and only Mr Alec Evreniadis who has kindly agreed to come and share what he knows in what I feel certain will be a very interesting learning curve for the All Stars. So come on down on a Sunday arvo and learn from the All Stars what they have learnt from the Professional Coaches bought in to coach and enhance the game of The Premier All Stars and see for yourself the gains that can be made to your own game. Suitable for beginners to advanced hitters there is something for everyone in the game, so step right up grab yourself a pointy stick and let us show you why we're better than you are at 8 ball.

Junior Update

On August 1st we held our monthly junior comp and we were very pleased with the turn out with 11 juniors showing up! It turned out to be a great competition and an excellent day all round. It is so good to watch how all the juniors are progressing with their skills and abilities. With even the younger ones taking frames off of the older ones! Ben Jenkins took out 1st prize (using Melmoe's cue by the way) only dropping two games all day. Jack Marsh came 2nd place and Michael Wilton took 3rd. Player of the day went to young Michael Brown who won a massive 10 games! Well done to all of you. We would also like to acknowledge on how well Danyl Brown has progressed just missing out on 3rd place. You can see a real look of determination and concentration on him, he is definitely one to look out for! Thank you to all the juniors who showed up and making it suck a fun day. We look forward to seeing you again at the next one which will be held on September 5th and for the next few months if you bring a non-member friend to the comp they will get in half price! So get all your friends together and come down and have some fun! Also ladies don't forget on the same day as the junior comp we have the ladies cash come so while your kids are playing why not try win some money for yourself? Flyers are on the bar so check them out for all the details.

Lastly we would like to say a big thank you to McDonalds for kindly donating vouchers that we are able to hand out as prizes as an extra bonus with the trophy and medals.

Melmoe and Claire bear :-)

Zeljko Kocer - The Croatian Sensation

After A whirlwind trip to Brisbane Aaron & I took the opportunity to catch up with our New Premier Pool Cue Craftsman, the accomplished Zeljko Kochev.

One look at this mans spotless & well organised workshop & the fluency in which he moved around it & I knew we had chosen the right person to make our own brand Cues.

Zeljko was born in Croatia in 1964 & his Family immigrated to Australia in 1969. Zeljko comes from a long line of wood craft specialists with his Father a brilliant Carpenter & his Grandfather a renowned craftsman in wooden Musical Instruments. Zeljko initially studied & became an Engineer specialising in Pattern Making when in 1994 he decided to peruse his passion & he registered his Custom Cue Building Business. Zelko lives by the belief of only using the best materials to produce his beautiful cues. The wood must have been Kiln dried and rested for a full 6 months before he will use it. His attention to detail and the endless amount of care he puts into his work is the difference between him & many other cue makers. His career goal is to spread his cues around the world & have the World Professional Cue Sports Players using them. Zeljko has been involved in the game for 30 years and was in fact ranked as QLD's no.1 player 15 years ago. He now plays mostly in the odd knock out comp & for the pleasure and social side of the game.

Zeljko is single with a life goal to find true love, he is a classy gentleman with a taste for only the best. He enjoys a good Wine or Whiskey & prefers a beautiful slim woman to share them with. Zeljko is also a Rock & Roll Enthusiast who frequently hosts bands at his amazing dream home he is in the process of building and looks forward to his retirement travelling to exotic countries.

Zeljko will be coming to Wa later this year and will be holding Free quotes & Fittings as well as having a question & answer session for anyone interested.

Many thanks to Zeljko for taking time out of his busy day to show us around.
