

Editorial:

It is with a mountain of exciting news I come to you, for the final issue of the year! November Rocked, starting with the annual Miss Q's Classic in WA, a great weekend of play with Justin Sajich defending his title in the Men's & Sue Bussanich winning the Ladies, well done.

Next up was the 2007 Elite showdown, with Vic & Wa, going hard on the tables & party scene. A Huge Congrats to FAR Q 2 who back up their title and will be taking on the mighty Kiwi's next year. See the amazing elite experience on the upcoming pages.

Next up are the presentation parties, time to celebrate, in VIC Friday Dec 21st & in WA Sunday Dec 23rd. See you all there. Leagues will be closed in both states from Thursday Dec 20th & will restart in WA on Jan 6th & in Vic on Jan 10th. And with that our league year comes to an end.

The fantastic succession of Leagues, Competitions & Events put on by Premier every year are made possible by your awesome League & Venue staff - In Vic Lea, Kyle, Ang, Colin & the Pool Room crew & In WA Az, Damo, Heather, Tamara, Jess, Holly & all the Miss Q's volunteers, you guys sure are the bees knees, thank you all sooo much for your efforts the Leagues & I think you are all simply the BEST!!! And Leagues to you all thank you for being a part of what we do, we couldn't do it without you. So 2007 has rocked just imagine what an earth quake awaits us in 2008. Love, hugs & mistletoe kisses to all, seasons greetings, cheers til '08

EAST/WEST CHAMPS FAR Q 2 - 2yrs running!

The East/West Clash was great fun, we had a bit of trouble all arriving on time but once we were all there our focus turned to the job at hand. We were up against the best that the West had to offer so we knew we had to bring our A game. The first few rounds were very tight with some great pool played from both sides. Luke from WA was playing exceptional but was matched by Robbo, Jake and Hammer. Up until the 3rd round (of six) the Vics were only a few frames ahead but we finally clicked into top gear and took the next two rounds with some very impressive and solid pool 11 to 1 and 9 to 3. After what we thought was a convincing lead the standard of our play dropped and to the oppositions credit they gave us what we deserved with a 8 to 4 hiding in the final round for Saturday. I made a few changes on Sunday as we had 8 players in the team and I wanted to make sure that each player contributed to our success. We had a long way to go to reach the finish line and we had received the wake up call in the last round of Saturday that we needed. After winning the first few rounds on Sunday it was clear the would only be one winner, but WA never gave up and pushed us the whole way. This was a true indication of their determination and professional attitude. We finally won the required number of frames in the 4th round and we all deserved to have a quite drink. I want thank Kerry for putting on such a great event and Leanne for managing the Victorian branch (I know we put you through a lot of shit). Last of all I want to thank my team for their exceptional talent and performance under pressure. I look forward to bringing the Trans Tasman Trophy back to Australia for the very first time.

There is an old saying that rings true with my side FARQ2.. "The more things change, the more they stay the same." Over the years our side has seen many different faces, but there has always been constant disorganisation. All throughout the Vic Elite season we were playing short, turning up late, and many other scenarios I won't bore you all with. So you can imagine why I wasn't surprised when it came to play WA recently in the annual East/West Clash, we were up to our old tricks again. On the Friday night prior to the match, both sides with handed their team shirts. The following day, naturally one of us thinks they have lost their shirt (which was later found) and we get penalised a frame. Just one of many things that our team does during the course of a year. Fortunately, like most years, we entered a very formidable team that can overcome all these dramas we put on ourselves. We were going to need to play well to beat WA as they were fielding their strongest team ever in my opinion. I think it's the first time they had an Australian representative playing for them. After the shirt presentation on Friday we had a singles comp, just to warm up before the weekends games. Sadly the WA boys (and girl) didn't want to put any money into this so I don't think the standard was that good as a result. Nevertheless, Marc 'Train' Robertson took it out, beating Neil Barton 5-0. Hopefully this would be a sign of things to come. Anyway, after a long weekend of matches, we came out on top, winning by a healthy margin and keeping the trophy here in Victoria. It has to be said that the WA team is improving year by year, and will eventually knock us Vics off. I just hope I'm not in that team when it happens. They have some good players coming through, and I was particularly impressed with how well their girl Haylie played. I hear she's only been playing a short time, so well done to her. I have no doubt she'll make a state team over there if she continues with it. As for our guys, this is our 3rd win in Elite from 4 attempts. However we are 0-2 against NZ... I'm very confident that if we send our best team over, we can get the job done. So lets be the first team to go over there and smash them. Finally, thanks to Kez and Leanne for running the weekend. All went smoothly (well, as smooth as it can get when FARQ2 is around), and I hope you both come to NZ to see us win! Cheers, Nathan Harris (Hammer)

VIC Update with Kyle

Greetings to you all as this is my first column for this illustrious newsletter and it will be the first of many. This month has been a hectic one due to my taking the reigns of the social leagues but I am optimistic that it will be smooth due to the support of our league mates as you are all as willing as I am to make Premier Pool Leagues not only memorable, friendly and most importantly fun but enough of my dribble you guys want to hear what has happened in the world of Premier Pool Leagues this month. November has been an exciting month filled with birthdays, theme nights and most importantly finals fever, well to start our birthdays this month have consisted of Serena Mitchell who this month turned 25 and as I understand it the night was a memorable one, speaking of memorable birthdays our young DJ (Daniel John) turned 21 and for those of you whom have crossed that particular threshold would remember what a fantastic time it is, I myself also turned 23 and it was a big night as some of you would have seen the following day by the fact that I was quite sleepy, and before you say I was hung over I wasn't I was just sleepy due to the fact that it was late. Theme nights are always fun and we had a doozy last night with our "pimps and hoe's sin city" theme where everyone dressed up in their bling and sharp outfits, the Pool Room was decked out as well with all the interesting themes from the hit movie sin city as well as the usually marvellous Pool Room decorations. Finally we come to finals and it has been close in these finals which we have had here this month with the red team finals being taken out by Glen Mullins and his partner Alex Sumner with a close victory over Simon Stinchcomb (simo) and Cameron Deans (nemo). In green team finals it was Brendan Ashdown and his partner Adam Arnold who took first place from Michael Papier & Michael Cracknell (crackers) with the outcome coming down to be decided in the doubles. Now to singles with Cameron Deans (nemo) narrowly winning over his team mate Simon Stinchcomb (simo). All in all it has been a big month but as Pimps 'n' Hoes Night.

On Saturday night at the Pool Room, was an interesting night as it was a theme night full of pimps but not so many ho's. The first person that I sore dressed up was a fellow league member Luke Ray wearing a lite green suit with bling from head to toe and to top it off was some fully sick shads, a true looking pimp. As the night went on more people were rocking up, there were two very naughty nurses in a pink coloured outfit. There was also a play boy bunny, a very corrupted police woman with pink fluffy hand cuffs. But I think the funniest thing I sore on the night was two guys who looked like the blue's brothers who couldn't help walking in to each other due to wearing dark tinted glasses. But it was really good to see a lot familiar faces down there like Trac, Wayne, Jimmy, Kez, Serena and Frizzy getting up to his old trick's. I hope all you guys enjoyed yourself as much as I did. Thanks to the Pool Room for another great theme night and I hope to be at the next one coming up soon.

Birthday

On Saturday night 24th of November I had my 25th birthday party. The theme was black and white and I was glad to see that everyone made an effort to wear black and white instead of just black. I, being the birthday girl, was in electric blue. The party was great. A lot of my family and friends turned up at Kingston Links, Rowville and we all had a blast. The room was filled with 300 balloons of various colours and the cake was a two tiered black and white chocolate mud cake. It was a casual affair with only finger food provided and free beer, wine and soft drink. The staff were very helpful and the DJ was a blast. The music was going all night and the variety ranged from '70 to now. My sister did a speech half way through the night which went down well. She also provided a slide show of a range of photos from when I was born to now. Everyone thought it was the best and it was probably the best birthday present anyone could've given me. We danced, we drank and we ate. The DJ kept running around trying to hook people up, including myself and I ended up getting a birthday kiss from one of the bar staff (who was very cute). Everyone had a lot of fun and if I could do it again, I would in a heart beat. I'd like to thank my sister for organizing everything and I'm looking forward to doing the same for her next

Ballarat Open 2007

Friday night I rocked through the doors of Club Q in Ballarat and straight away saw freshly brushed tables and people with league shirts from all around Australia. There were heaps of people practicing for the weekend so it was very hard to get on a table, so I had to sacrifice and use a coin op table. After a couple of hours playing on a down graded table, I decided to retire for the night so I would be fresh for the long tournament ahead. Saturday morning I woke up early and finally decided to walk down to Club Q where the tournament was being held. After finding out what table I was on and said heaps of hello's to players from the Pool Room, I got to my table, then the nerves set in. This was my first tournament and I didn't really know what to expect. The games began and I didn't know anyone on my table. As my games began, I couldn't pot a ball at all, so it was time to hit the Jack Daniels! As soon as that went down, I nearly ended up 7balling a decent player on the same table. As the day went on and the drinks went down, one of my next games was against Tracy Heath known from Potters Pool Hall in Dandenong. Fortunately for me, she had a bad hangover so I was able to beat her to my surprise. It came to my 2nd last game against someone I will never forget, Paul Claack. He potted two yellow balls off the break, but he potted out on reds and the game was over in 30 secs!! With all the drinks I'd drunk and all the fresh new experience of a tournament under my belt, I decided to head back to the Motel to have a little break before getting something to eat, Pizza Hut all you can eat, something I haven't had since I was a kid! Sunday rocked around and I played in the blonks and got through the 1st round and waited 2 hours to play my only 3 games for the day. After all my excitement of the 3 games, I watched the rest of the main games which included Jake McCartney, Tony Wakefield & Terry Axford play their games. As the weekend came to an end, as I was walking out, I saw the funniest thing, Kenny Carelli pulling a poker table and chips out of his car! Well Kenny, I hope that was more enjoyable than the pool all weekend! All in all it was a great experience and I look forward to more tournaments in the future. Many thanks goes out to my best friend of the weekend, Jack Daniels. Colin Rankin.

UNDER THE TABLE WITH ANGE

Well it's that time again, and you can tell it's the Silly Season and Christmas is almost upon us, so where do I start. For those of you hiding under a rock, we had the WA guys and girls here for the East v West challenge. Congrats to the Vic's who have won and are now off to New Zealand in the new year, One of the WA boy's will do anything for $1, and I mean anything. We hope they had a great time and a few laugh's and even more grog. I am starting to do a Tool of the Month, and I have my first victim. This tool of the month I am naming the Soft Cock Award. And that goes to Craig Harris. Who was in tears after finding out that Lea (our beloved league co-ordinator) was taken to hospital. On the subject of Lea, for the first time in her Poo Room experience Lea was carried out of the venue, and not for being drunk. Lea is taking some well deserved time off, as she is feed up with the lot of you. Only joking. Some of you where asking what's with the mo, well it was Movember. Where the guys are sponsored to grow a moustache for the awareness of Prostate Cancer and Men's Depression. So I suggest all of you guy's turn your head and cough. Don't forget the Chrissy Presentation. Friday 21st of December. Well that's all for now. Cheers, Ange

Well everyone, I just wanted to Congratulate all the winners we've had in this huge month. Especially to FAR Q2 for an awesome effort against the Predators in the East West Clash. Two years in a row, you rock!! I'm so proud of you all. To the Predators, it was great to meet you all. We better watch out because you certainly gave us a great competition. To all states and participants of the Nationals, congratulations to you all. Especially to Elite players Marc Robertson, Jake McCartney and Suzi Yeomans. Kyle, DJ and Serena, I hope you all had very special birthday celebrations. To Kerry and all of my staff, thank you for everything throughout the year. I hope everyone has a very safe and Merry Christmas and an awesome New Year. Hope you've all been good girls and boys and get all your Chrissy wishes! Leanne xox

WA Update

What a month of excitement & hold onto your cue's guys because its Christmas already! The Miss Q's classic this year was a smash hit, fantastic games were played by some of WA's best with Sue Bussanich Taking out the ladies Cash & Title in the women beating the current Australian Women's champion Elise Mabbot, with a special mention to Miss Q's own Haylie Bryant who came 4th. In the Men's Back to back winner Justin Sajich took the cash and defended his title from the back to back Runner Up Darren Morris with a special mention to Miss Q's own Shannon Ellis coming in 3rd. What a fabulous fun weekend topped off with a serious $500.00 money match between two competitors who just couldn't get enough of the game!

A Big congrats to Team Predators, check out the fantastic Elite stories from our fabulous WA Elite team, we had a blast! Another Congrats to Damien Stenhouse who won both the Wed Yellow Singles and the Gossies Qualifier, well done. Talking of Gossies best of luck to the Mighty Miss Q's Challenge Team who take on Gosnells this weekend, go get em guys, lets make it six in a row!

The excitement continues with Presentation on Sunday Dec 23rd, party time! A Cash Xmas Comp on Dec 30th and the all anticipated New Year's Eve Fancy Dress Party, to finish off an awfully exciting & jam packed year, catch all the details on the following pages.

Finally my thanks to you all for being a part of Premier & Miss Q's in '07 & best wishes for the festive & holiday season, see you back in '08.

Wa's Predators - Melbourne Elite Adventures

Well we won the WA premier elite competition & it was time to leave for Melbourne at 4am with high spirits to take on the Victorians. We arrived hours later to some really nice weather & settled in at the Ferntree Gully Apartments very conveniently located next door to the Pool Room.

After some very competitive games of coins we crowned our mascot 'Boxhead' & headed over to check out the Pool Room. If you are ever in Melbourne you have to go there, besides Miss Q's of course, it's the best pool room I've been to. There are heaps of pool tables, a big screen & lounges, not to mention the nightclub area & karaoke! So over the next couple days some of us got a bit of pool practice, some of us got some drinking practice & some of us got some spewing practice.

Kerry kindly took us on a sightseeing bus tour up the mountains where we took some interesting photos & we went out for lunch to celebrate Luke's 22nd birthday. Also Neil & Tim took their own scenic tour at 3am to the 24hr Supermarket & met some interesting people.

Congratulations must go to Luke for making it to the Singles Semi where he was knocked out by Neil. So congratulations also to Neil who then came runner up to Marc Robertson in the singles championship. And well done Colin for beating Suzi Yeomans (a womens Australian team player) in the final of the competition for the 1st round knockouts.

The team event was played over the Saturday & Sunday. I am very pleased to say we all stepped up & gave them some really good competition. We had some very close games & a lot of opportunity to win more than we did. It was great to see we had them worried on a number of occasions through the matches. However the Vic's had a very strong team of mainly State/Australian players & took it out in the end, but not without a good fight!

The final score was VIC 73 to WA 45. But Neil finished off the weekend with a lovely version of Delta Goodrem's 'Born to Try' on karaoke & really showed the Vics how it's done! Congratulations to the Victorian team & best wishes for the New Zealand trip, also thanks to their team manager Leanne & the Pool Room for looking after us all very well. Haylie Bryant.

WA's Elite - East/West Clash Experience

Hi all, Aaron here fresh back from sunny Melbourne and the East West Clash & quite the clash it was. Let's set the scene shall we, In the Blue & White corner weighing in at 2500 pounds and a record of 3&0 in interstate clash "FAR Q 2". In the Black & Gold corner weighing in at 2250 pounds the challenger's fresh from the west with the impressive record of a full season of Elite play undefeated "THE PREDATORS", The battle ground the 7ft by 3 1/2 ft felt covered table we all know and love.

And so it began.

The first of two days of play saw a grueling six hours of quality match play ending with Far Q 2 ahead by a mere 15 frames score 28 - 43. Although good play and outstanding sportsmanship was displayed by all, the stand out performers for me on day one were Tim Elwin & Haylie Bryant of W.A and Nathan (The Hammer) Harris & Marc (Robbo) Robinson of V.I.C.

Day two in a race to 73 frames saw play recommence at 2:30 to allow some of the VIC team to compete in the Dandenong Open Comp and although down two of their strongest players, Robbo who had made the finals at the Dandy Open and Jake McCartney who was still present at the Poolroom to play the second days matches but was quite obviously nursing a severe hangover left over from the previous nights festivities. The VIC's came out all guns blazing leaving nowhere for the WA's to turn and although again all played well the WA's failed to capitalize on the (few) chances presented during the second day of play. The second days standout performers were again Nathan Harris (impressively consistent), Suzi Yeomans and Bradd Hill (El Capitan) for the VIC's & for the WA's Luke Carter (WA's most Consistent player), Neil Barton, and again Haylie Bryant all of whom stepped up to the challenge and played some sensational 8ball. The final score line read as follows WA 45 frames to VIC 73. WA generating the strongest score to date in an interstate clash "well done guys." In closing I'd just like to say that as WA's "Team Manager" I'd like to extend my thanks and praise on behalf of my team to FAR Q 2's Captain Bradd Hill and players Marc Robertson, Jake McCartney, Suzi Yeomans, Brett Daphne, Jamey Suede, Nathan Harris, Graeme Hill & Team Manager Leanne Shield and wish them all the best in New Zealand (Bastards) I and the team enjoyed every moment of the experience and will have the memories to cherish till we kill those brain cells. And to the PREDATORS Captain Wayne Carter and players Luke Carter, Neil Barton, Tim 'Boxhead' Elwin, Colin Fender and Haylie Bryant well done again, it was my pleasure. Next year if you need someone to be "Team Manager" again I'd be more than happy to get drunk, slur encouragement and heckle the opposition from the sidelines, count me in Az.

Around the Tables with

Hey greetings and salutations from the Bulldog of Miss Q's. With the Gossies Challenge coming up I feel excited and yet I struggle to find enough people for our challenge, anyone reading this please be thankful for our big beautiful building we have here on Reserve drive and we should honor Miss Q's by kicking butt against Gosnells Pot Black on the table and then having a beer with them after.

A big congrats to Damien Stenhouse (#1) for winning Wednesday Yellow League with a lot of big names including Shannon Ellis, Josh Howlett, Dean Page and myself, so now we should find Damo at the bar and its his shout.

A big happy birthday to Shannon Pinner for his 18th birthday and a very big good bye to one of our own sons Mr Rollo Moodie, we shall miss you my son and we wont be forgetting you in a hurry, all the best to him and his journey.

With Kez still in Melbourne Aaron and myself are still running the show here in the West and our thanks go out to Holly O'Brian for her constant help behind the bar. With my space slowly getting smaller for this newsletter piece I shall say my goodbye and a farewell till next month...hi POPPY Mark... Bulldog out... see you around the Kennel J
