

Miss Q's Challenge Team Defeat the Gossies once again!

The Challenge was cast, it was that time again
The title, the trophy, Miss Q's to defend Round Robin on a Sunday the team was decided
Final Preparations made, we were all so excited
So with Shayne as the driver we were Gosnells bound
And the Wheels on the bus went round and round!- Jackie

Hello everyone, I'm Jasmine Peters, I'm a league at Miss Q's. Have been now for about 5 months and just recently for my first time played with the crew down at Miss Q's in the Gosnells Challenge! So for the next few paragraphs you will be reading in my own words how very exciting the Gosnells Challenge was, oh it was so Good!! It all started on Sun 3/6/07, it was a lovely day! We all met at Miss Q's for the qualifying Knock out Comp. I feel I need to mention every one of our very talented pool players at Miss Q's that joined in & made the team: Wayne C, Shannon E, Matt J, Aaron D (Fozzie), Jimmy S, Andrew B, Damien S, Shayne D, Jacki C, Lee K, Josh H, Rollo M, Cara C, Jarrad P, Micheal W, Tegan E, Jamie M,

Editorial:

Hi Leaguies, as mid winter hits no cold snap stops the action in the Premier ranks, with Challenge Matches, Birthdays, Majors, Finals, Presentation Parties and all new Social League seasons across the board, its all Go Go Go...

Those in Vic & Sa, time is running out to get your Berri Entry in, see your League Co Ordinator NOW, and good luck to you all especially to WA's only entrant this year, Elise Mabbott, may your Berri experience in 07 be incredible.

Congratulations to the WA Premier Challenge Team beating the Gossies for the fourth consecutive time & a huge thanks to Antonio & all the Gossies for their wonderful friendship & hospitality, check out all the action on the coming pages.

Finals Fever is in the air across all three states, best of luck to everyone competing and check out your states section for Party Dates.

Elite in WA starts their final round this week and with Vic almost at halfway point, the competition this year is tight as ever and its fantastic to see so many peoples games improve so much! Enjoy the rest of the season.

A big Welcome to Colin & Rebecca in Vic, Lea's two new assistants and farewell & best wishes to Mel & Tracey. And in the West a big Welcome to Damien the Miss Q's newby and a sad farewell & best wishes to Killer.

Happy reading, Leaguies 'til next month...

Happy Potting
Kez

Wishing Miss Q's Longest Standing contractor Killer all the best and hoping he enjoys his break & returns to pool real soon, Cheers Killer you have certainly left your mark.

Aaron G,
Jasmine P (that's me),
Alyce K. A special mention to the top three players of the day, Jimmy S 3rd, Damien S 2nd place and Shannon E 1st place good work guys. The atmosphere at Miss Q's was just full of excitement and fun and the jukebox in the back ground just made the day so enjoyable. At the end of the day we were all so excited about the next weekend when we compete against the Gosnells team. Then came the big day on Sun 10/06/07, everyone met up at Miss Q's about 11.30 and we all had a practice game to get into the swing of things and the fun had already started. There were two guys that turned up with the same blue fiery shirt on that was very out of the blue!! But looked really cool (I still think they organized it). Then it was time to make the exciting bus trip, so we all piled on, everyone still looking half asleep, but us 4 girls Alyce, Cara, Jacki and Me that got the back seat were amazingly the loudest on the bus hehe. On the way the girls kept everyone awake with their singing and games on the bus. We arrived. We all then had a practice game on the tables then got straight into the comp. It was very different at Gosnells the tables were all different sizes and colours. There were even tables that had neon lights and marble balls, very different than Miss Q's so it was a good challenge for us. All day long Gossies were screaming out GO GOSSIES and Miss Q's were screaming out GO MISS Q'S, it was very competitive on who could scream the loudest and I feel that medal should go to Kerry, she was screaming the loudest all day long keeping us on our toes. After the first full round of games they yelled out the total scores at that time and Miss Q's were in front, Gossies were going to have a hard time catching up to us, we were all on fire. At this point in the comp I was so excited I had won 2 games in a row, I couldn't believe it. This being my first ever comp out of Miss Q's and it being the Gosnells Challenge I was very proud of myself. I didn't think I was going to win any. Miss Q's being a big huge happy family, we all got along so well, supporting each other and having a ball. So close to the end with one more round to go Miss Q's were still in front by a lot of points, it was going to be hard for the Gossies to catch up now. But I had not won a game since the first two games I won at the start. With nearly every game I played I got down to the black ball and could have won heaps, but when I potted the black ball I'd pot the white ball in the same pocket or another one on the table NOT HAPPY JAN. But that's where everyone that played for Miss Q's that day played so very well, I was just there for my good looks and with the best chalk holder in whole room!!! At the end of the day and with all the games finished we had an afternoon brunch which was redrooster chicken and chips and everyone was that hungry the food didn't stay on the table for long. The total scores were in, but first I have to mention and pay a great congratulations to our top three players at Miss Q's which were SHANNON, SHANE (bus driver man) and WAYNE, these three guys came out today with a total of 10 wins out of 11. Now down to the best part of the day, the scores Gossies came out with a total of 61 points good work gossies, but the Miss Q's team were just to good! We ended up leaving with a grand total of '99' points and left again with the trophy. We were now close to the end of the day and it was time to go home. We said our good byes, hugs n kisses, well for the guys a shake of the hand or two, and we all piled back onto the bus. The girls and guys fought over the back seat, all piling in together. There were about 18 people on the bus at least half of us had a few drinks at Gossies, there was singing involved, cameras, lets just say lots of fun! When we got back to Miss Q's we had a big Gosnells Challenge Team photo with the winning trophy. To make the day even more fun we had an adults photo session but I think the details can be left out for that one.. But over all a very very good day for the Miss Q's team.....GO MISS Q'S

W.A Update with Becks

The last month has been a huge one for Miss Q's. We celebrated our 5th birthday, circus style. Thanks to everyone who participated and partied hard with us, we have some classic pics from the night so be sure to check those out next door -->

The Gosnells challenge was another huge and exciting event. Miss Q's took the trophy home again with their 4th consecutive win against the Gossies! Scores were Gosnells:61 - Miss Q's: 99. GO MISS Q's! Unfortunately I myself didn't get to be part of the fun, but it looks like the team had a fantastic time - Check out the pictorial on page 4! Don't Miss out on the next Gosnells Challenge in September. Stay tuned for details. Once again our Miss Q's population is fluctuating. Another sad farewell is in order for our Agro and Delilah. Azza is devastated at losing his best mate... On a happier note we have a few new faces to the Miss Q's staff. Meet Damien on Page 4, he's our new Monday and Tuesday night supervisor! We also have some new volunteers, Mel, Jess and Holly. A big welcome to you all. :) You can all be part of the fun, we've some new Monday and Tuesday leagues starting up in July so hassel out one of the new chicks or blokes in charge for details. It's well worth it. Thanks to everyone who's been leaving very helpfull tips in the tip jar, keep it up! To those who havn't..Feel free to share your wisdom with us all... :) There's more parties in store for Miss Q's, stay tuned for Launch Party dates for the brand new Miss Q's Website. Shouldn't be long now! SEE YOU HERE!!!! - Becks

Miss Q's Mandurah was the place to be on Saturday Night, 6th June. Our leaguies and all our wonderful staff and friends of the venue dressed up in their purple and gold circus costumes to celebrate Miss Q's 5th birthday! The special birthday drinks were great, with jelly shooters, frozen cocktails and berry bombs... all purple and gold to match the theme. A huge thankyou to the chicks and blokes in the decoration team for the transformation of Miss Q's into a big top. It turned out fantastic, the room was filled with paintings and models of clowns, acrobats and all sorts of circus animals. Raffle tickets were given out at the purchase of any of the birthday specials and put into a draw to win prizes throughout the night. Well done to all our lucky winners! Thank you to all those who dressed up, and congratulations to our winners: Best Dressed Bloke/Clown; Kim Holst and Best Dressed Woman/Strongman; Emma Turner who won an ekxy of alcohol each, and Best Dressed Kids/Circus Animals; Kyle and Logan Vanzon. All in all it was a great start to Miss Q's 5th Year here. Thankyou to Emma who made a fantastic giant birthday card for everyone to sign, it's still here in the lounge area so don't forget to add your piece and be part of the Miss Q's history! I'll finish with a thank you and congratulations on behalf of everyone to our lovely Chick in Charge, Kez, for all she's done with the venue and for us. We love you! -Becks

Miss Q's W.A Elite Team Profiles

Team Name: Agro Elite Pussies (Team Number 5)

Team Members: Alyce Kent (Captain), Sherrie Kent, Teagan, Heather, Becks. Subs: Shalako, Jasmine.

Teagan aka Teagz. I am 18 and I have a 22 month old daughter named Jessee-lee. I was first introduced pool by my partner Michael (Kenny) I wasn't good in the beginning but still had fun and met lots of people. My game has now improved and I still have so much fun down here at Miss Q's. The only advice i have is give it a go and you will have fun, guaranteed.

Alyce. I've been playing at Miss Q's now for about 1.5 years. My sister Sherrie who is also on our team, introduced me to everyone and the next thing you know im in a team, I had never played before. So I enjoyed myself and started playing and met some great people who are now my mates. Some Tips: For people who are just started playing, just have fun and enjoy the game.

Heather. Age: 18. I am currently a cashier at a newsagencing and I am aspiring to be a tattoo designer. I started playing pool about a year ago. First socially then eventually graduated to elite. I think that elite is a great place to meet people, especially being fairly new in town. My main goal this season is to have fun and end in a fairly decent spot on the ladder!

Becks. Age: 18. I've been coming to Miss Q's for about 6 months now, I'd never played pool before that. My first experience playing in a junior pool comp, I came runner up. I started elite as a sub and am enjoying every minute of it. I love the girls on the team, they make it all the more enjoyable. Everyone at Miss Q's is great, I love the atmosphere and I guess that's why I enjoy it

Team Name: Table Breakers (Team 6)

Team Members: Clifton Risk (Captain), Roy Wootton, Paul Facius, Jamie McGuigan, Aaron Facius, Tristan Yeoman, Rob White, Jess Druery, Mark Jeffery.

Clif here from the Table Breakers, formally named Stickmean. This year I've got almost the exact same team, except one player: Rob White from last year decided on a year off pool and Roy Wootton was only happy to stand in and play, making no loss on talent for Table Breakers. This year I think all ambitions eyes are strongly focused on The Predators. Wayne Carter has created a team of Kiwi-Beating potential, I believe. With players like Luke Carter and Sean Forman, plus himself, it makes for a very strong team and with teams like Dad's Army and Cunning Stunts, out, it's looking like an interesting season. Plus these newbies from the social leagues will make for a new and good

VIC Update with Lea

Well, well, well, half the year has flown past already!! Lots of things happening around the traps the biggest of all in Melbourne is as at 1st July there will be NO SMOKING in venues across the state. There will be a smoking room next door to our Premier office at the back of all the pool tables. Leagues please remember to tell your partner or team if you're going to the smoking room so your games are not forfeited or so your team doesn't need to chase after you. Before you leave make sure you're aware of when you are next due to play. Players are also slacking in dress code more and more frequently, mostly the issue of tracksuit pants. If you are unsure of the dress code, please read the sign on the door as you come in. We've only had a couple of leagues finishing finals. Congratulations to all player in Wednesday Blue and Red Leagues that participated in finals. Extra special congratulations to the champs of both leagues. Great job! Since it's midyear it's also time for our presentation party. This time we're going back to school!! Our party will be on Friday 13th July, make sure your there in your school gear to enjoy the evening and also to receive your $20 drink card if you have completed a season of league. See flyers for more information. The next tournament around the country is Berri, SA. If you haven't done so already, make sure you get your name and booking into me fast, as time is running out quick. Don't miss out, you'll have a blast!! For more information, please see myself. Lastly I would like to welcome Rebecca our latest addition to the family, to Premier Pool Leagues. For this month, that's it from me. Keep your heads down and bums up, and enjoy your pool game.

2007 Elite Teams

Team 1 - Premier Pussy's

Mmmm...pussy. Slippery when wet!! No, really! Our team was originally going to be an all girl team, then our sixth member ended up being Shannon (aka Shazzy - Pussy Whipped) who has a girly name anyway, so Pussy's it remained. Then one of our gal's pulled out and we found Daniel (aka Mr. Pussy - team mascot). The all important "Pussy's" are as follows; Leanne (our 'chick in charge' aka Kitty), Kerryn (aka Chesty La Rue), me Nichole (aka Nickers) and our new 'girly team' addition for this season Kristy (aka Crazy Cowgirl). Our motto hasn't changed as much as our team for this season - have as much fun as possible and take as many casualties as

Team 2 - Empty Pockets

Tonight leading off we have Duane, rarely seen without a pint or JD in his hand. He sometimes uses a pool cue as well. We thought he might be a good leader which is why we put him at the front. Really it is only to take the many bullets fired at our team. Next up in line is Peakey (Matt). A wiry left hander. Designated driver for Duane. So far leading the team for wins, even we are surprised at that. Third in the cue we have Joe. A solid player who has single handedly caused the water restrictions we suffer, not only in Melbourne but I am sure throughout Australia. He has recently become a full time member of our team. Welcome Joe. Ralfy boy comes in at number four with a bullet, the quickest still in the west. That's what the boys say. Ralfy doesn't muck around when it comes to pool, he even brings his own cheer squad! Fearless leader Kaz is our penultimate player, really only interested in money is our captain. This shows in her pool performance on the score board. And lastly but by no means the least, we've got our anchorman Darren. A rather unassuming fellow, that is until he's at the pool table, then look out! Even reliable, he's the

Team 3 - Loose Cannons 2

The Loose Cannons (2) have played pool for a number of years collectively. The team captain is Andy Binding (aka Andy), and the other players are; Peter Bradney (aka Bad) - seasoned player, John Treimanis (aka Jaytee) - also a seasoned player, Don Lilly (aka Is Don?) - almost a veteran player, Leigh Gilpin (aka Gilpo) - up and coming, Shane Bradney (aka The Wiz) - young gun, Adam Devenish (aka Toyboy) - former young gun and our sub Brett Morgan (aka Flash). If you thought Loose Cannons (1) were a force to be reckoned with, look out B.O.F.U.C.S. (WA), Loose Cannons (2) take no prisoners.

Team 4 - Crackwhores

We're the Crackwhores and our team players are; Colin Rankin, our Captain Michael Doyne, Ryan Lamperd, Ed Disler, Ryan Smith and Nigel Fountain. Our team only got together at the start of this season and most of our players had never met each other before. We have all bonded extremely well over the past few weeks and have also become more competitive as the weeks have progressed. There isn't any story behind our name (that I knew of...) we just threw some namea around and we thought "Crackwhores" was a bit of a laugh, so we took it. We are a very competitive team but also enjoy a bit of fun. We look forward to playing all the other teams in the

UNDER THE TABLE WITH ANGE

Well it's that time again. We had a few B'Days last month Lea and Jen another year older. There are a few coming up Benny and Rorz are having a B'Day and to all have a shit load of drinks for me.

Don't forget all of you it is Presentation Night on FRIDAY THE 13. Back to School, and for those of you who know me I have thought outside of the box yet again. So bring it on. Get you costumes together and have a drink and a hit with me.

It looks like there is mutiny in the ranks amongst our numbered ones. Not is all as it seems. There where also a lot of brake ups. So the person that you might fancy, could possible be single. So why not give it a go. There are, a shit load of great pick up lines. So how about I get you started.

Honey grab your coat, you have scored. So if you have a great pick up line let me know. I also love useless shit. So if you are like Dave (Elite x Wednesday) grab your Zoo or jump on line I would like to hear them.

News from SA

Hey kiddies, what's been happening? It's Damo again, here is SA there has been a little bit going on with our 9 ball league close to finishing and Berri tournament coming closer and closer.

We are almost finishing our leagues and its a very close competition with most of the old leagies playing and a couple of new ones as well. But in the mean time hope everyone is looking forward to Berri which will be some awesome competition. Until the next time keep playing hard and as the line goes "go hard or go home!"

Cya ladies and gents that is all.

NEXT TOURNAMENT:
Berri 2007 is here! Saturday 21st & Sunday 22nd July. Please see your league co-ordinator for booking

... More From Vic, meet our latest!

So who is Bec? Well I'm the lass who has been pestering you all on the phone over the past few months. So here's a bit about me! I treasure my family, pets and friends and yes you guessed it, I'm one of those sad people that love a challenge and can be a bit of a work aholic. I have a wicked sense of humour and whilst I try my damdest to be laidback, my wonderful hubby insists I'm a

Also, please make welcome our latest 'bloke in charge' Colin. He's doing a great job on the floor, getting you all back to play aswell, so please make him feel welcome as you see him round the room

And of course, another Elite Team for Vic...

Team 5 - Once Were Warriors

Here we are back for another Elite season and I've been given a chance to captain a good mix of solid competitive players. We have Windy (Jay Windross), Crazy, Pommy, Menance, Crackers (Michael Cracknell), Chooka (Chris Klimecki), Rigo (Peter Rigopolous), Westy (Anthony West) and myself, Batman (Daniel Cole) all together we make up Once Were Warriors.

Here's to a good one lads!

Meet Damien

Hello my sons and daughters .. hi and welcome to meeting me.. I'm Damien Baldock, I'm turning 21 this year and here at Miss Q's I'm the newest fella of the clan... My job here to put it simple as possible... I'm running the show on Mondays and Tuesday so Kez and Azza get some time away from everything, you know... it's called relaxing... haha. I am from Victoria, that's where I was born but I have been in W.A for about

13 years so I consider myself a West Aussie. Plus I'm a Freo supporter. I love playing footy, I play for the Pinjarra Tigers and I very muchly love my pool. I'm tryin to get as good as I can. Azza, Jimmy, Andrew and Shannon Ellis are helping me so much. Thankyou to them and I spose ill see ya around the kennel soon. Chao. :P
