Wow October already! WA have now qualified their 2007 Elite Team representative, congratulations to the Predators, a sterling effort going through the entire season without 1 single loss, not bad! The Vic's finals fun & games begin next week, good luck to all teams competing, the Wa's are keen to meet the best the Vic's can muster. The East-West Clash will be held at the Pool Room in Vic from Nov 9th to 11th, make a point of coming along to check it out. Summer Elite just kicked off in WA last week, a good solid league promising to produce a very exciting season. Lea has a couple of vacancies left for the Vic's Summer season, so register your team ASAP.

Good luck to all Leaguies participating in the final two Major Cash Pool Tournaments for 2007, the Ballart open in Early October & the Miss Q's Classic on Nov 4th & 5th, get you entries into Lea for Ballarat & to me for the Miss Q's Classic.

A big Congratulations to the Miss Q's Premier Challenge team that beat Gosnells Pot Black for the 5th Consecutive Challenge! A very exciting tournament, check it out on the back page.

Best of Luck to all of our Leaguies competing in the National 8 ball titles later this month in Melbourne, go hard and enjoy the experience.

In Closing, Happy Halloween to all and be sure to drop into Miss Q's for it's notorious Halloween Party, dress up in your spookiest outfit & you are guaranteed to win a prize.

Until next issue & the EAST - WEST CLASH, have a laugh of a month!!

Happy Potting

Wa's Elite - Team Predators Ready for the East-West Clash!

By Haylie Bryant.

I am extremely happy to be a part of this unstoppable red team 'The Predators'. What an achievement going through the whole season undefeated! It's great to see such a high standard being set, so all players in the league have a challenging competition & opportunity to improve their game. When I first started playing at Miss Q's only a couple of years ago I had no idea I would now be playing in the best team elite has seen so far & heading over to Melbourne to take on the VIC's, it's very exciting!

Our fantastic captain Wayne started our team originally with his son Luke & his boyfriend Neil, after having some coaching with Wayne I was given the opportunity to join the team. Sean had impressed Wayne in the Summer comp, so he was recruited & then introduced Colin to our team as well. We were also lucky to snap up Timmy at the last minute who played in the runner-up elite team last year. And last, but not least Danny has been the best sub you could find.

With this new fresh team to Miss Q's we all got know each other very quickly, especially after a few nudie runs we had all bonded very well. Please be aware though, public nudity does not improve your pool!

I must say by the third round we did have to pick our games up a bit, there a lot of good players in the league with a lot of potential & we have noticed many who have improved out of sight since the start of the comp. Especially the two all girl teams, look out next season boys!! In the first round of finals we had a close call against the Table Breakers & they even had a player missing, but we were lucky to still defeat them 19 to 12. Congratulations to the Mean Green Pleasure Machines who had finished 8th on the ladder, but managed to defeat Table Breakers in the semi-final (who were again down a player unfortunately) to come up against 'The Predators' in the final. After our close call in the previous match & being undefeated all season, we were not about to break our winning streak & were so determined we didn't give the pleasure

The Social Experience that went to the TOP of Elite!

Fellow Leaguies this is the story of the rise of the Mean Green Pleasure Machine.

Well it all started back in last summers Tuesday social league where the very eclectic group of players that make up our team met. The way the social league panned out was that of very close competition and between the 8 of us we made up the list of the top players and prize winners of the league. So when time came for Kerry to get on our back about teams for the Thursday elite we thought you know what, let's give it a crack. So we started the league a few weeks later. After a lot of ups and downs our inconsistencies, near wins, and at times lack of concentration saw us fall to 3rd last by the end of a very eventful and very entertaining year.

Then the finals fell upon us, and after some really motivational speeches amongst ourselves we decide to remember how to play the game. We started concentrating and luck happened to be on our side. We saw victory in the first round through a forfeit, then by narrow victory to an undermanned light blue team we got through to the next round again.

We come to a challenge in the grey team, who have had it up on us all season. So it happens after our previous round win that same night we are playing warmed up, and with a lot of confidence and we proceed to easily defeat our opposition and make our way to play off for 1st 2nd and 3rd. We were stoked too say the least.

We then find out the dark blue team is short one player, Roy a big deficit that they fail to overcome in a narrow win but a win none the less.

So we then play the Predators in the final, and the fact that we go on to win only 3 games fails to dampen our spirits nor take away the experience of playing finals against top quality experienced opposition. I'm glad to say that the quality of the comp and the people in it was fantastic and can't wait for next winter! - By Stampy. (the big tall skinny bloke) & edited by El' Capitan Hunter.

VIC Update with Leanne

Hello everyone!! We're back for another month and what a very exciting one at that! First up at home base we will be having our Elite Finals. GOOD LUCK to all teams throughout the finals. You deserve your chance at glory. Followed closely by the East-West Clash, which we have the privilege of hosting this year. Congratulations to "The Predators" in WA for winning their Elite. We're looking forward to having you here, not just to socialise of course but to play hard!! Not that we have a result as yet.... But soon! Don't forget to come down, support and be apart of the Elite finals playing right here at The Pool Room on Thursday 11th – 25th October.

We've also had finals in our own social leagues. Congratulations to all players from Wednesday Green, Sunday Red and Wednesday Silver leagues for great efforts in their finals.

More finals in the sport that need mentioning; Congratulations to all Superleague players that have recently played their finals; also Good Luck to all EDPL and DDPL players that are currently in finals and Good luck to all players that have entered the Ballarat Open.

Our showroom is now open. Make sure you come in and have a look! There is such a wide range than we've previously had and the cash sale prices

Well it's that time again, and I need some help, not not mentally, well possibly. I need some help with the Big Baby Shower for Tracey and Wayne (Elite), I am after either a lot of small babies or preferably big babies (you guy's know who you are, you are the ones who are Oh I'm dieing when you have a slight cold or a splinter), for what all I can tell you is that it will involve baby powder and possibly baby oil. We have to say goodbye to a few of the bar staff, so goodbye to Nick and also to Loz, and hello to all the new staff guys be nice to them. A big congrats to all the EDPL guys who made it and played and won. I tell you what the bar is the best place to overhear news, of who is doing who and who is payin' just a little bit to wet your whistle, from what I hear a lot of the girls and some guys swing both ways. Don't forget coming up in the next few months it is packed, with Christmas presentation, new years and also theme nights last Saturday of the months, and don't forget the tournaments Ballarat and also ANZAC

Well that all for now, Cheers Ange

Introducing Kyle.....

Hi guys! My name is Kyle, however I do answer to "Animal" as it is what most people call me. And just to clarify.... I don't play drums!!! I'm the new guy round the floor and on the phones. If I can help in any way, please just ask but if you see me floating around, be sure to say hi!!

Around The Tables with Damien, Heather & Jess.

There has been 3 weeks of solid competition with Sunday green kicking it off with Lee Kirkby and Fozzie taking out the doubles finals with Damien Stenhouse and Steven Derham taking a close runner-up. Lee Kirkby making it a double win by taking out the singles finals with Mark Winsor making a close second. Coming to an end at the same time was Tuesday purple and our infamous elite league. Taking out the Tuesday league were Fozzie and Kyle Van Zon, with the Marshies putting up a good fight, but they were no match for their competition. Clint Brimson then went on to take the singles finals out, narrowly defeating Rollo Moodie. Elite was a grueling 27 week long season but it came to a dramatic end last week with the Predators taking out the team final. Predictably, the Carter's took out the singles finals with Luke just beating his father in the end. A big congratulations to everyone that participated in finals and good luck to our Predators in Melbourne and hope you bring home the big shiny object (the cup) lol bye for now Jessica, Heather, and Damien

Miss Q's Challenge

Team Win 5 in a Row!

TWENTY OF THE BEST, THEY SENT TO US

IT WAS GOSNELLS TURN TO BOARD "NANCY", THE BUS MANDURAH BOUND, THE TROPHY THE ATTRACTION BUT THE MISS Q'S CREW, WERE READY FOR ACTION!

By Jacki Connor

That's right folks, the date was set and it was that time again, the Gossies challenge. And what a challenge it would turn out to be!

So back a week, to Sunday the 16th September and those that wanted to try their hand to qualify for the Mandurah team, headed down to Miss Q's in the afternoon, cues and skills at hand. A great turn out once again and some fantastic games played. Great to see some fresh faces as well as the usual suspects, trying out for what lay a week ahead. A fantastic result in particular to young Kyle Van Zon, definitely one for you all to look out for in the near future! Congratulations to our very own Azza, for coming out on top at the end of the day, and of course to all the ladies and gents that made it to the the team. So then there were twenty, Mandurah's finest, ready and eager.

Roll on Sunday 23rd! And what a beautiful morning it was. The sun was shining, the birds were singing..... Well actually it was freezing cold, the wind was blowing and it was trying very hard to rain. But that didn't dampen our spirits. And so once again we arrived at Miss Q's where we all had a bit of practice while we waited eagerly for 'Nancy' the purple bus to arrive with the equally keen Gosnells team.

And so they came, and it began, with the gossies team putting the very first win on the board for the day. At the end of the first round, the score was Mandurah 11 - Gossies 9, putting Mandurah ahead by two games. The players settled in and the nerves died down a bit as we went head to head, game after game. Round 2 saw a draw, leaving Mandurah still ahead.

It was great to see (and hear) all the supporters cheering their teams on for moral support. And so we battled on, with round 3 being even again. Mandurah - 10 Gosnells - 10. This was fast turning into one of the most exciting Gossies/Mandurah Challenges seen yet.

Round 4 was completed, again the scores for the round even. Then came round 5, Mandurah - 10 Gosnells - 10. Never had we seen a challenge turn out this close!

So we cheered and we screamed, "C'mon Miss Q's". and it came right back at us, "C'mon Gossies". The air was electric with the excitement!

Finally in round 6, seen Gossies have a break and win the round, 11 games to Mandurah 9. They were dead even, still with three rounds to go!!

Gossies managed to round 7, Gossies - 11 Mandurah - 9, putting the Gossies team in the lead for the first time in the day. Poor Kerry could hardly contain herself as the scores came in for round 8. Mandurah - 11 Gossies - 9. And so once again it was a dead heat, leaving the last and final round for the battle for the challenge trophy to be decided.

We could hardly hear the juke-box or poor Kerry's announcements as everyone was screaming and cheering for their teams and team-mates! And so it went, game for game, until the final scores came in..... But Kerry (being Kerry!) Kept the score to herself as all the players And supporters were treated to a fantastic supper, thoroughly enjoyed by all. Afterward it was time for the photo shoot, so we all piled outside as the weather gave us a break, and took our places in front of 'Nancy' for the happy snaps.

Then we waited with anticipation for the final round to be announced. The score..... Mandurah - 12 Gossies - 8. Once again Mandurah had claimed the trophy! But not without one hell of a fight! I'm sure I speak for both teams in saying that it was a fantastic competition and everyone involved in both teams should be congratulated on their fine efforts. All in all, what a great day, with many thanks to be had. Firstly, to Kerry, Azza and the Miss Q's crew for putting on a fantastic day and making sure that things ran smoothly and that Miss Q's was looking its finest (as usual.)

Huge thanks go out to the Gossies team for the fantastic effort put in by each and every one of you in making this the closest and best challenge so far. Fine people fine sports.

But there can be only one winner..... Congratulations to the brilliant Miss Q's team. Once again - We are the champions!!

Check out some of the magnificent photos and I'm sure you'll see how much everyone enjoyed themselves on the day.
