Editorial:

Welcome Leaguies to another exciting month of Pool & Laughs at Miss 's. Headline news is - Gossies scraped in with another win, leaving us only one more chance to save Azza's dignity. A super Close match up this challenge saw only 9 frames lost to give Antonio & his Superb Gossie Challenges the win. Many new comers to the Miss Q's ranks have done us proud especially to Shane Buckley, Player of the Challenge, congrats to all & we hope to see you with us at Gosnells Pot Black in Dec for the final Challenge of the year. A big Well done to the Gossies Crew, you are formidable foes, this is your 7th consecutive win!!!

Other news this month was the hysterical Mini Games Night held by Emz & was won by Jarrad Page, check out the details & pics and stay tuned for more fun & games with Emma, especially the Freaky Friday Pool League scheduled to start next week. Also see Chelsie for the All new Wicked Wednesday Social Season kicking off soon too.

As Spring approaches we head into the Final rounds of the Winter Elite Season, Captains are working hard with their teams to secure the top spots for the Finals next month the top position Monday Elite is the tightest with the top four teams super close: 1st Kidney Punch (8) 496, 2nd On Like Kong (6) 484, 3rd Straight Stix (13) 456 4th Stenny Specials (10) 429

Thursday is also shaping up to be a great Comp: 1st The Underdogs + Rosa (3) 545, 2nd Shlong Dongers (6) 513, 3rd The Muppet Show (9) 449, 4th Any Holes A Goal!! (5) 428. And Sunday is headed up by that infamous Middets team Scotty Brownrigg (-) 1st Scott's Assassins (5) 253, 2nd That'll Do (6) 226, 3rd BOFUC'S (8) 222 & 4th NOTTHRULACKOFTRYING (7) 187.

Later this month myself & a batch of super keen Miss Q's Leaguies will be heading North to test their skill at the Rossi Boots Open Cash tournament in Geraldton. All the very best of luck to them, and see me if you are keen to join us I have one spot still available.

Have great games & take care til next month.

Happy Potting

Gossies Challenge

Sunday 22nd of August saw the latest Gossies Challenge happen at Miss Q's and with the strongest side of players we had entered in quite some time some of us were feeling pretty confident that this time we would be keeping the trophy that Antonio failed to bring such is his confidence. A week before, a team qualifier was held and there was a good turnout with both new and old faces in attendance with a new player to Miss Q's, Kevin Sexton stamping his authority on the field to win top honours in the qualifier, well done Kevin. We had a pretty solid team and it was time to take back our trophy and keep me from having to dress in drag for a shift at Gossies Pot Black in order to fulfil a bet should we lose just two more matches. The Gossies team arrived on time and after some practice we got down to business, the first round was very close and things were looking good for us to have a victory on home turf. The rounds remained close all afternoon and it was anybody's match with no round becoming a landslide for either team as is traditionally the case, so as the day rolled on there was little room for error if we were going to win this and get Antonio decked out in drag for an evening at Miss Q's. Antonio offered incentive to both his team and ours at the halfway point offering free tables to the participants of this challenge on the night I have to dress up should I lose this stupid bet (Not very subtle Antonio). And so the day went on, one frame to them and one frame to us until the end of the challenge. It was so close that there were not one but four players of the match, appropriately, two from each team sharing the lead on points at the end of play Gary & Darren (Gosnells) Shane & Dan (Miss Q's). This saw a round robin commence to decide who owned the best player on the day, with the Round Robin coming down to yet another playoff between Gary Parker from Gosnells and Shane Buckley for Miss Q's after they finished on equal points again, with Shane Buckley becoming the eventual player of the match for this challenge. As for team of the challenge that honour went to Gosnells but only just with a final scoreline of 121 MQ's to Gossies 139 a very close scoreline indeed, 260 frames played and only 18 frames in it. Yay for Gosnells, well done guys. This was the 22nd challenge between Miss Q's & Gosnells and similarly the overall challenge score is as follows Miss Q's 10-12 Gossies, so stay tuned for the next match it ought to be a good one, it'll have to be a good one to keep me out of a dress, Grr! - Az.

EMZ BITZ

Hey Y'all, Whilst I'm sitting here eating some chocolate I thought I'd throw you guys a line or two and update you all on what has been happening and what is coming up.

A huge Thankyou goes to Chelsie, Jarrad, James and Mathew. Without you guys my Friday night mini games wouldnt have been anywhere near as entertaining as it was. You guys are awesome. For everyone who didnt come along you definately missed out. I had games using everything from oreo's, cards, streamers, balloons, miniture shopping trolley's, slinkies and my personal favourite for the night 20c coins. :-)

I would like to make a comment on the current trend that is slowly building through Miss Q's. The trend to find something weird and whacky and then wear it and I say YES do this, it is most entertaining. Mouse, Cody and James were our Wonderful Wednesday Ballerina's, in their fetching pink, green and black tutu's. Thanks guys there is never a dull moment.

Speaking of weird and whacky, we are going to start a Freaky Friday Social pool league. I invite all of the weird, wonderful or maybe the slight bit curious folk out there who would like to join our fun evening of madness and mayhem, to come and speak to either myself or Ma at the bar. If you cant do Friday evenings then we are also looking at starting our Wicked Wednesday Social league as well. If that tickles your fancy then Chelsie or Kez can be of assistance to you.

Im also co-ordinating a Pool and Poker Social league for Saturday afternoons. League starts at 12pm sharp and is finished for 2pm. Poker will then start from 2pm. Its $15 which covers your league fee's and your $10 spend card for poker (which you will recieve an extra $1000 chip) and allows for all day play. It is a short trophy season of 12-14 weeks (depending on number of teams) if you are interested please come and see me.

Well that is all from me for now cos I have run out of chocolate and Im now on the hunt for some more munchies :-)

MINI GAMES NIGHT - A SMASH HIT

Miss Q's Mini Games Night - What a night we had with our Mini Game adventures. It all started with testing the abilities of our contestant's faces. An Oreo was placed on their forehead, and they had to manipulate it down to their mouths without using any part of their body except their face and at no time could the Oreo leave the face. This became quite a challenge and our only successful player was Jarrad Page.

Jarrad seemed to be almost unbeatable that night but who should stand up to the challenge none other than our Chelsie Reynolds. Armed and ready in a SKIRT she was matching Jarrad almost win for win. You go girl !!

Though they didn't get many chances to dominate over Jarrad or Chels, Mathew Hibbitt and James Millar gave it their all. Mathew was absolutely stoked when he finally did take a game off of his nemesis Jarrad, he worked hard for it and you deserve a big congrats Mathew. James, even though you didn't get a chance to win any events on your own, you were really happy when your encouragement award was a packet of Oreo's. :-) It was worth every Oreo for the awesome entertainment you provided to those of us who were watching you give it go. You did really well and I thank you a lot for participating.

For all of those people who didn't come down and join us on our games night, you definitely missed out. For some hilarious accounts of what happened don't hesitate to ask Jarrad, Chels, Mathew, James or even Rosa, Brad and Morgan who were our witnesses on most events, for their testimonials.

By the end of the night it was Jarrad who dominated with 8 wins and coming in second was Chels with 6 wins.

Thank you guys so much for making my evening so enjoyable and totally bladder defying. A big thanks goes to Greenfields Liquor Store, these guys provided us with some awesome prizes that our winners have now got to enjoy. To Kez for doing all the photos, there are some photos that are absolute gold, and yes guys they will be on internet before you read this :-)
