Vol 7 No.13 March 2006

Editorial

Full steam ahead! This month Elite 06 kicks off in Melbourne and Adelaide and I will be in each city for the first couple of weeks of the season. This Elite League Season will be the first time that we implement the all new restrictions on team players to make the competition as fair as possible. If you have not consolidated your team yet or just want to join a team please see Leanne in Melbourne, Mandy in Adelaide and Janie in Mandurah, WA to register your interest. The 2006 season promises to be the biggest and the best Elite challenge so far, with the Tri State Clash being hosted by Miss Q's in Sunny WA this time around. Don't Miss Out!

With the Geelong Open & Anzac Day Tournaments fast approaching this year's calendar of events is truly underway, check with your League Co Ordinator for entry details and closing dates.

To my very special Miss Q's Couple who tied the knot in Feb, Mel & Ash, you hold a special place in my heart and I wish you guys all of the very best for your future.

A Big welcome goes out to N8O (Nathan) The L Plates League Co Ordinator joining the Miss Q's ranks and Nichole joining Lea at the Pool Room, good luck and I hope your time with us is a blast! Also check out who came to visit me in WA this week, Michael Papier, all the way from the Pool Room in Vic, what a nice surprise, check his WA story out next issue.

Cheers everyone have a happy March and see you all when I'm looking at ya.

Our beloved Kerry with one of our regular Vic members Michael Papier.

Happy Potting Kez.

ELITE, ELITE, ELITE!

It's that time of the year again.

Elite is about to hit the states from the East to the West.

Make sure your team is in and ready to play!

Gosnells Vs Mandurah - Round 6

Once again the epic battle between the Mandurah Night Warriors and Gossies and the 40 Thieves took place on the 12th of February at the battle field of Miss Q's Mandurah. 20 of the bravest war lords of each came to a clash for a grooling 4 1/2 hours with lite snack of tea and bickies. A blistering 139 matches were fought out before Gossies 40 thieves laid down their cues and accepted their defeat. The mighty Mandurah Night Warriors had once again rained victorious sending the Gossies 40 thieves cowering with their tails between their legs. The Final blow was delivered by Ben from Gosnells defeated Colin of Mandurah, as the best of the best went to head in a better of 3 game annihilation. Ben came superior over Colin with a convincing 2 to 1 defeat. The remainder of the surviving war lords came together to battle it out in what is known as the Blonks comp so pre-ordained by the gods. Many battles were fought although, delaying the inevitable once again the Mighty Mandurah Nights were undaunted with our three bravest warriors, Jamie Heard, Paul Bennett and N8O taking 1st, 2nd and 3rd. The entire battle was orchestrated by our stunning goddess Jane Parkinson- Jose with the goddess's court jester, Antonio from Gosnells at her side. Our biggest commandments go out to the stunning Renee, Clint and Kerry for attending to the wounded and keeping all the lords refreshed with their unbeatable food and beverages, Tune in next time for the results of the epic battles to follow....

VIC Update with Leanne

Boy have we had an interesting month. We've had laughs and tears, big parties and big blue's, (hence the reason some of you are missing some fellow leaguers!). But all is now back on track and we're all heading in the right direction. Thanks to all leaguers for their patience.

On to other notes, the main topic on the tip of everyone's tongue is ELITE. Yes it is that time of year again and it's all starting this month. Good luck to everyone across the states. Put your best cue forward and let the games begin!

To finals in Victoria, firstly we had Wednesday Blue League battle it out in a long 12 team draw. It was a fab final where we had an end result of "Slotted Angle Services" taking the Gold, "Father & Son" were the runners up and the 3rd place takers were "Lee's Box & Her Big Cox." Then it was time for singles.... "Sam Lilly" took the crown, playing "Mark Simcox" and "Kieran Mannix was 3rd. We then had Sunday Yellow burst into finals where "Side Pockets" battled it out with "Dumb & Dumber" with "Side Pockets" taking the crown and "Super Heroes" took 3rd place. With singles, we had "Dave Piccioli" continue his winning streak, "Eddie Kunert" as our Runner Up and "Glen Harrison" was 3rd. And last but definitely not least, Wednesday Red League then had the challenge. I have to say a major congrats to my dear Ben Rose that after 6 years playing with Premier Pool Leagues, has finally had his first win. Well done Benny! I'm so proud! We had "Daniel & Ben" and "Jen & Dan" battle it out and D.C. Rock took 3rd place. To singles, we had a family affair with "Dan & Corinne Gallet" battle it out for first, congrats to Dan for the Win, and also to first time in the finals, 3rd place went to "Phil Hansen." Congratulations to all finalists.

Also a huge welcome goes out to Nichole a mate of mine that has joined our crew in Vic. Welcome Babe!!

Well Ladies and Gents, that's all from me for now. Enjoy your month and don't forget to keep smiling!

Love to all, take care til next month.

Tammy & Kane

If there was an award for the best "out of your ass shot" it would be awarded to me (Tammy). Playing against Kane Neil on Friday 27th January, my game was going along quite nicely and found myself winning with only one red ball and the black left. The red went in and found myself snookered so I decided to hit the cushion and hope for the best. Not only did I hit the black on the right angle when it was sitting at the end of the table, I cut it enough so that it went in the middle pocket. The quote of the night goes to Kane who said "that was bullshit." The best looking bullshit I've ever seen!!

 Hello everyone!
 My name is Paul Jackson –
GET YOUR KILTS OUT!!
 When people ask what's underneath, I tell them
 "Everything's in working order!"

Vic's Latest

Well, what can I say?

My name is Nichole, I am a Libra-Scorpio cusp. My measurements are 34-28-34 and I am 5'8" tall. My interests are.....well, that is exactly what this feels like!! I have been asked to introduce myself to all of you and it feels like I'm in a scene from a bad American tele-movie about speed dating!! Not good, not good at all.

Seriously though, I am officially the new face or rather voice at Premier Vic. If you have received a call regarding Elite or leagues in general or have been recruited from the Pool Room recently, then that was probably me!!

Anyhoo, if you see me around (the 'chick in charge' will be a dead give away) then come up and say howdy, introduce yourself and be assured that I will probably have forgotten your name by the next time you say hey, but please don't hold it against me or anything else for that matter!!

UNDER THE TABLE WITH ANGE

Well it's that time again, so here we go. Congrats again go to Hayley and Gareth from Wednesday League who have gotten engaged, the only thing I can say to that is NO DON'T DO IT.

We would like to say hello to all the new leaguers, and also to the new bar staff Siobhan and Jess. Well we all know that Kat Barrie is a bitch but now she is the ultimate Bitch from Hell, she has given up the fags, so watch out Kieran. The other Bitch is back that would be Ben running Friday Night as Naomi has left.

While the rest of the world is involved with the Winter Olympics, here at the pool room we have the Wet Olympics. Mandy (from the bar) and myself v Mark (from the bar), well Mandy had to pull out due to the fact that Mark is her Boss, but was a great coach to myself. It started with the Soda Water Fight behind the bar. Mark won the first round as I was wet from head to toe, but the second went to me as I filled the jug with ice and soda water Mark the girl he is ran for his life, but got caught out he is blaming the key to the office as he went through the door he coped the full jug. After two rounds it was 1 all. It all came down to the tea towel fight, it was pretty much blow for blow, good shots by both sides. Every one said it was a tie, but I was the one with the bruise.

Mark Simcox will be shaving his head as he told the EDPL Div 2 team that if they won he would shave his head. Well the score was 22 - 10. So how about it Mark let your team mates enjoy the fun and let them do it for you.

And now to Rob Remeucus, for whom I sold tickets to his Hanging Suicide in the car park a few weeks ago. Well he didn't do it as you may by now know. I did have an interview with Rob a few weeks ago and he told me he would give me plenty of notice as to when the event will be happening, so to those of you who have paid big money to see this, be assured that it will happen.

You may know that The Pool Room have a theme night every last Saturday of the month. On the agenda for Saturday 25th March is a "Pimps and Pros" night. So see you there. Well that's all from me. Cheers, Ange

WA Update with Janey

Wow, what a month it has been here at Miss Q's, we've had finals, restarts, babies, engagements and weddings. Well I'll start with the leagues, we've had Tuesday Purple play their finals with Ash & Gary winning the doubles and Dean & Jarrad coming a very close second. In singles we had Dean Page beating Gary Kalbus and 3rd place went to Ashley Cotgrave, well done guys. We also have all Wednesday leagues and Thursday Purple starting their finals in the next couple of weeks. Now PPL have two new leagues starting, Monday Blue and Tuesday Blue, in which Tuesday was the resign to Purple, good luck guys and girls and all the best with your games.

Now on to babies, we've had Clifton Risk & Jes Druery and Rob White and Carol, both having baby boys join their families and also hearing that news that Bec Edwards & Sean Erickson will be expecting a new bundle of joy and also gave us that the news that they have just got engaged.

Know for the moment of the month for me was Mel Reid's and Ashley Harris's wedding, and what a beautiful bride and very nervous groom, both tied the knot on Saturday the 11th of Feb.

Well to find out all the details on all the above keep reading and have a good look at the pics,

Until next month, Cheers, Janey

Introducing Nathan

Meet N80, he is 20 years old, he loves long walks on the beach at sunset, spaghetti and a jolly good rodgering.... He is a new league coordinator and has many vigerous plans for Miss Q's. Apart from vividly good looks, he's personality has no end and always glad to sit, listen or attend to your every need, and with tones of youth work experience there is never a dull moment with N80. As long as N80 is around everyond is bound to have fun on and off the pool table.....Until the next time make sure to be here or be a boogie.

Peace, N80

Tips and Tricks from Killer!

Before playing your shot, try and work out were you want the white left after.

Ash & Mel

Mel & Ashley's Wedding

This love story all started back a few years ago when Mel and Ash would come down to Miss Q's with their mates for a few games of pool, when one day Ash built up the courage to ask Mel to a game of pool. Straight away everyone could see the spark between them and they both knew and could feel the chemistry. From that day, they were inseparable, where Mel went Ash was and vice versa. Then one very big night down at Miss Q's, the Cowboy/Cowgirl night, Mel and Ash were dressed to impress, with Mel shaken her butt with hat in the air, and both riding the odd saddle, all went quiet. Mel standing there with the rest of us trying to work out what was happening, then Ash, with mic. in hand went down on one knee and asked the big question, "Mel will you marry me?" Of course without hesitation Mel said "YES!!!" which left not a dry eye in the house. Then after 12 months of extremely stressful times with not organising the wedding, Saturday 11th of February 2006 came around, THE BIG DAY! With all of their families, friends and of course the Miss Q's crew dressed in their finest waiting anxiously for the bride to arrive. It was sweet also watching Ash, who some say comes over like he's a tuff bloke, pacing and trying to get rid of the sweat off his hands. Then the moment came, when we saw two Holden Monaro's pull up, and two beautiful bridesmaids come out, one Mel's sister and the other Nurwana Mustafa, one of PPL's leaguies and Miss Q's beloved's. Then it was Mel's big moment, as she came out of the cars and OH, MY GOD, she looked stunning. A beautiful ivory coloured dress, with long a long train with lots of gold detail on it, hair up with curls, glistening tiara and a veil sweeping over her beautiful face. As she walked down the isle, the look in Ash's eyes was priceless, knowing that in around 20 minutes he would be married to this beautiful woman.

Nurwana Mustafa

During the ceremony you could see that neither of their nerves had settled, standing face to face holding each others hands. After the vows, the moment came were they were announced husband and wife and the big kiss. The love between them was amazing and sealed with Ash sealing it with the lick of Mel's lips. This was a very beautiful wedding and went well without a glitch, and to Mel and Ash, may your life be filled with love and being married doesn't stop you from having ups and downs, though just remember how much you love each other and that you will always be there for each other. With all the love and happiness to Miss Q's number one couple, from all the Staff and Patrons from Miss Q's and PPL.

The Miss Q's crew were all there to celebrate

BABY SEASON AT MISS Q'S

On Wednesday nights in our purple league we have Rob & Cliff who come down each week trying to kick everyone's butts in a game of pool and by their sides are their partners Carol & Jes. These two ladies would come down, never missing a week, cheering on their partners despite being pregnant. There was only a couple of week's difference between their due dates.

Then on Wednesday the 18th of January we received a phone call from Rob saying that Carol was going to have the baby any minute. Then no more then 10 minuets later Cliff phoned to say that Jes had just been admitted to the hospital and it shouldn't be much longer for her.

After many hours of pain for both these Ladies, Carol ended up giving birth to Zeth Keith Gosling - White at 14:35 on the 19th of January and weighing 8 pound 12. Then Jes gave birth to Kalani Mitchell Risk at 13:11 the following day, weighing 7 pound 9. So congratulations guys and a big welcome to Miss Q's two new and youngest patrons. May you all enjoy the joyous times with the new additions to your families.

Bec & Sean's Big News

On Wednesday the 1st of Feb, Bec Edwards, one of Miss Q's regulars and EC came in with a smile from ear to ear and whispered to me "Janey, Sean just proposed to me, but we want to keep it quiet!" So reluctantly I agreed and give them both Kisses and cuddles. Now as all of Miss Q's would know, that something so big is really hard for me to keep a secret as I love telling everyone on the microphone any good news that people have. Though I did promise and bit my lip and kept it quiet, until.....

Kezza noticed the ring and at the top of her voice shouts, "BLING BLING, my god do I see Bling?!?!?!?" Then obviously all those that were around new of the great news. Though not only were Bec and Sean celebrating their engagement, they are also expecting another baby brother or sister for their daughter Mckayla.

Congratulations guys and we hope you don't get too stressed out trying to organise your big day.

Congratulations to the newly engaged Bec & Sean. Oh, So sweet.

News from A-Town

Hello folks! How is 2006 treating everyone? Well I've had an absolute crap start to the New Year so I honestly hope everyone else is doing far better!! We've had finals galore since the last update, and several with surprising results. In our lovely 12 team Sunday Black draw, team finals were all over the place! For those that turned up (and believe me there was plenty who didn't!) congratulations on some excellent games. With a lot of half teams and half elected substitutes, Joseph and Toby got their asses kicked 5 - 0 leading up to the finals, but I'm pretty sure that their loss had a lot to do with the boys pinching each others nipples and giggling like school girls rather than concentrating on their games. Stuart Little and Bra had a great match against Joel and Nicole, the match coming down to the wire, only to see Stuart and Bra go through to the grand final to play against Brian and Ash (when I say Ash I really mean Ryan!). After a tough game

Stuart and Brad finally won the dress, much to the bitter disappointment of Brian. At the end of the day, a close final and some good games so kudos boys!! The singles carried on the next week, and everyone was pleasantly surprised to see Colonel Mustard get knocked out by the very quiet, occasionally very drunk Aaron. But in the end, Aaron got done by the guy that always needs a haircut (even if he's just had one), Joseph. Well done boys!! Blue League finals saw 8 Ball Fever climb their way from the outskirts of the top 10 all the way into the grand final, on the way passing the boys from Made from Beer. Biggest spaz attack of the night goes to Jamie Rossiter, but he still assures me that he's a Liverpool supporter and not a Chelsea fan (ony a Jamie!). In the end the boys from Ignition (Remix) took out top honours over 8 ball fever, but I'm sure Kelvin will go down eventually (like all good boys should!).For their team photo they had to get little Mia in- our resident league baby; better looking every week!! For the singles, we had some surprising results (Scott it was just one of those nights for you honey!), and in the end we had two team mates play off for top spot. In the end Kelvin narrowly beat Phu, but you guys both played some great games. Now, lets not forget kids ELITE! ELITE! We start on Thursday March 23rd, and it's not too late to register. Make a team of 6, get ready to play the greats of the game, and look out as they'll try to drink you under the table too. Please come see me if you're having trouble filling a team, I've got millions of people waiting to join your team! Also guys make sure that you come down to Empire over this coming weekend; March the 3rd, 4th, and 5th as Empire is hosting the Australian Mens 9Ball Titles. The best players from all over the country will be here, so take the opportunity to come watch some high quality 9ball. Anyway guys hope you enjoy the wondrous month that is April; don't forget that March 13th is a public holiday so no leagues and enjoy the races! And Guy says hello.....

Ignition (Remix) after their win and Kelvin in his Pink shirt... which leads me to....

Empire's Pink t-shirt count!!!

For the month of February 18, yes 18 guys (dare we call them guys?) walked through our front doors wearing PINK SHIRTS! What is the world coming to? I put the test to the other states to see who has more pink shirts (just quietly, my money is on Melbourne!)
