Vic Elite 2006

Loose Cannons & Sarah's Team

ELITE, ELITE, ELITE! It's ever so exciting this year. FAR Q 2 in Victoria took all the glory last month with a huge win. But now it's time for everyone else!! Runners Up this year were "Just Good!" They consisted of "Michael Cracknell, Jim Rene, Jay Windross, John Russell, Rod Westcott and Jason Ahmad." Such bad luck guys just missing out on that trip. Huge effort guys to stay on top of that Ladder all season. Congratulations from me. I'm sure you'll all be fiery for the Gold next year.

The battle was also on for 3rd and 4th placing's were "Loose Cannons" took on "Sarah's Team." "Loose Cannons" took the glory winning 21-8. Congratulations guys!! "Loose Cannons" consisted of "Peter Bradney, Andrew Binding, John Treimanis, Shane Bradney, Don Lilly and Sam Lilly." Great going guys. A big night that paid off your way. Again, congratulations.

"Sarah's Team" consisted of "Sarah Chapman, Charlie Pentogenis, James Mashiter, Shaun McCourt, Wayne Keller and Andrew Sykes." For a team that was thrown together at the start of the season, you came a long way to take out 4th place. Congratulations to you all as well. (Cont'd pg 2)

POOLCOMPS.com is an initiative of the World Confederation of Billiard Sports (WCBS) and the World Pool-Billiard Association (WPA). Developed by a team of programmers based in Sydney, Australia, our online Pool coaching site is aimed at teaching the game of Pool to people across the globe and creating a fun and interactive community of Pool players and enthusiasts.

The game of Pool is one of three generally recognised major billiard sports disciplines played world-wide. Each of the three disciplines has its own governing body, although all three sit under the umbrella body of the WCBS.

The WCBS was inaugurated on 25 January, 1992 in an effort to consolidate the organisation of billiard sports with the goal of gaining official recognition by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Through the membership of the three major associations the WCBS has millions of members world-wide, representing roughly 200 national associations.

The WPA is the world governing body of Pool and is one of the three direct member bodies of the WCBS. After years of attempts to unify the world's various Pool Associations the first General Assembly of the WPA was held in 1988. Two years later in Bergheim, Germany the first WPA World 9-Ball Championships was held and has been an annual event every year since. Today, the WPA consists of six regional member associations and runs a number of World Championship events across various divisions and disciplines for both men and women.

Some of the world's leading Professional Pool Players have endorsed PoolComps.com. World Champions from past and present, as well as names you are bound to hear a lot about in the coming years (if you haven't already) have been eager to provide their support to PoolComps.com as they recognise the benefit a world-class Online Pool destination can bring to the sport.

There are three main goals of PoolComps.com

1. To educate players of all ages on how to improve their game
2. To increase the profile of Pool on a global scale
3. To help Pool make it to the Olympics

The idea of PoolComps.com was born from a desire to create a central online destination for Pool players of all degrees of experience and from all corners of the world. The web site would create a global community of Pool players and provide an environment that would allow people to improve their game, and ultimately lead to a higher profile for the sport.

This initial vision quickly evolved into the concept of an online Pool Coaching site, endorsed by the major Pool associations and providing users with world-class technology at their fingertips which would teach them how to become better Pool players. It was a natural progression from there to utilise the game mechanics built for the coaching interface in the development of other Pool related features - giving us our multi-player game, practice table and - coming soon - Speed Pool and Tournament play.

As with any sport the organisations that control Pool across the globe - the World Confederation of Billiard Sports (WCBS) and the World Pool-Billiard Association (WPA) - have a keen interest in increasing participation in their sport. The benefits of increased participation are many, but one benefit that shines through for the WPA and WCBS is the inclusion of Pool as an Olympic sport. In recent years the WCBS has been on the verge of achieving that long held dream.

(From pg 1) To Elite singles, 1st and 2nd was a battle between "Nathan Harris" and "John Russell." And what a battle it was!! "Nathan" came out on top winning 5-3. There was also another battle going on between "Leigh Gilpin" and "Jamey Suede." "Leigh" getting up 4-3. Huge effort guys. Some amazing games & some unlucky shots.

Nathan Harris & John Russell

Leigh Gilpin & Jamey Suede

Congratulations to all. Aswell as singles final, we also ran a few side $5 knockout comps, winner takes all. In our first match we had "Michael Cracknell" take on "Tony Wakefield" where Crackers got up. In the 2nd we had "Don Lilly" take on "Aaron Walter" where "Donny" got up. And last but definitely not least, in our 3rd we had "Cameron Watson" take on "Ben Hall" where my beloved Cam got up. Well done everyone and thanks for participating.

It was a fabulous season this year Vic's, things can only get better, so next year's going to be huge!! Make sure you get your Team in so you don't miss out.

Well, Good Luck SA's and WA's, see you in November!

VIC Update with Leanne

Oh, we're edging closer and closer to Christmas, it's so exciting!! Hope everybody is starting to get ready for that busy Christmas break. Well we're still in Elite mode across the states, SA is about to begin their finals and WA will be soon after that. Once again Good Luck to all!!

In Melbourne we've just started our Summer Thursday Gold League and it's off to a flying start. All booked up and all ready to win! You better hold that stamina all season coz there's plenty of teams chasing that Gold (and cash)! Good luck to all teams throughout the season.

To finals, we've just had a very special group of people complete their finals. Friday Silver League (If you knew the leagues, you'd understand!). This season the Team Champs were "George & Paul," the runners up "Roodees" and Third place takers "Area 51." To singles, "George Eichner" took the Gold, "Michael Papier" took Silver, and "David Devlin" took Bronze.

We've also just had Wednesday Green League complete their finals. Team Champs were "Ballz Up," Runners Up "Go Son!" and 3rd place takers "Chris & Geoff." To Singles we had "Geoff Parker" take the win, "Peter Wallace" came a close 2nd and "Cameron Fletcher" came 3rd. Congratulations to all!!

We've lost a couple of great Aussie greats over the last month. Everyone's beloved racing great "Peter Brock" and the Crocodile man himself "Steve Irwin." May you guys rest in peace. You both will be sadly missed.

Again, good luck to all Elite teams in SA and WA, bring on ya best!!

Well everyone, that's it from me, hope you all have a lovely October. Stay safe and stay mad!! Til then, keep smiling!

Leanne.

Happy Snaps

Here is one of our beloved leagues "Brad Hocking" pelting out some tunes with our Friday night band "VELVETEEN."

Awesome!!
Go Brad, Go!!

The 5th Annual Celebrity Red Carpet Gala

What a huge party night on Saturday 23rd September here at The Pool Room. This time it was "The 5th Annual Celebrity Red Carpet Gala." Everyone was dressed to their best. Some people were wearing dresses or suits and ties I hardly recognised as I never knew they owned any!!

Looking good!!

Huge effort Pool Room

and to all that participated, you all looked so lovely, well done!

GRAND FINAL - KARAOKE IDOL THIS SUNDAY 8TH OCT from 3pm.

Hey guys! It's Aidy here! (your Karaoke Guru). We are inviting you all down to The Pool Room on Sunday evenings for a bit of a casual sing song and a few social drinks. We have had Karaoke here for the five months now and everyone seems to be loving it!

We have approximately 8000 songs to choose from and an awesome sound system thanks to The Pool Room. So if you have a Monday off work or are celebrating a special event on a Sunday, come down to The Pool Room for our Karaoke Sunday's 8.30pm - late.

Happy Birthday Simmo!!

Not only was it the end of month theme party but it was also "Simmo's" (Simon Stinchcomb) Birthday. Happy Birthday Simmo!! We all hope you had a great night full of heavy drinking and celebrating!!

Happy 21st Chicky!!

And another Birthday in the house, dear Corrine one of our sexy bar girls has just turned 21.

Happy 21st Corinne!!

UNDER THE TABLE WITH ANGE

Here we go again, we have had a few B'Days but the big one was Simmo's 30th the same night that the Pool Room had their 5th Birthday. Lots of grog for everyone. There was also a few of the Leguies and bar staff dressed to the nines. And might I say don't scrub up half bad.

New leagues starting all the time and new faces around the room, I myself have met most of them and they are ok. So next time you see someone new stop and have a chat and a drink. More drink than chat. Come stand at the bar when you have finished playing pool, cause that is where the fun starts. You get to know a lot about people, like their sexual encounters, which is always a fun topic.

Good luck to all the EDPL guys, for the final if you get a chance you should get down and support your pool room.

The next dress up night for the poo room is Halloween Party. So pretty much anything goes. And as for Presentation Party it is formal.

That's all for now so Cheers
Ange

Wednesday Purple Finals

Well in true Premier spirit we know how to put on a good and competitive set of finals. This league was no exception. We had some new players some old players and some in betweenies. Doubles finals was a huge success with our every match being very close with scores of 5-4. The doubles champs were Us & Them and the runners up were father and son combo Paul & Aaron. Singles finals was like a fight to the death!!! Congrats to Jamie McGuigan, our finals champ, and to Paul Facius for coming second. The results were basically how the ladder turned out, just shows you how much consistency plays a role in the game of pool. Great effort guys!!

Meet the W.A. Elite

Team Name: Horny Devils

Team Players: Emma, Naomi, Andrea, Adrian, Josh and Gary

Team Profile: Naomi whom has been playing pool for about seven years she loves a challenge and brings a certain oomph to the team. Adrian has been playing most of his life. He was taught to play pool with the opposite end of the cue and as one of our best players he proves that strange techniques can pay off. Gary is another of our top players also having played most of his life and even though he is the oldest in the team he can still give the young ones a run for their money. Andrea joined us recently she hadn't picked up a cue in years but still put up a fight when I threw her into the elite league on a night we were playing one of the top teams. Josh also joined us recently he started playing pool as soon as he could hold a cue. And finally myself, I've been playing pool for about 5 1/2 years and so far bringing a team together has been a bigger task than competing in Elite! We are here to prove that young or old you can still be a Horny Devil!!

GREASE LIGHTNING!!!

Now this was an evening that we knew Clint would love because he could dress up in a Pink Ladies outfit. We had to pull the blonde wig off of him because he wanted to be Sandy!! It was a night of Hand Jiving, drinking, dressing up and oh did I mention drinking?? The weeks that we had in prep for the evening Emma and Naomi made some AWESOME decorations for the night so guys thank you very much for that. In front of the bar was GREASE on a massive piece of cardboard it was the bomb diggity. I don't know how we managed to but we got more Pink Ladies than what we did T-Birds. Like I said earlier Clint just wanted to be Sandy. We only had one Grease song on thje jutebox so everyone was sick of "Summer Nights" and "Grease Lightning" by I am of course!!

News from A-Town

It is happening again folks; the weather is getting warmer, the calendar is full of major events and there's god damn Christmas stuff in the shops already. Yes it's October, and for the second time this year I can proudly say I have the wonderful Kerry alongside me.

Adelaide has only just started Elite finals and things are getting heated already. The sure bet for the year "Ya Mamma", have proved yet again why they are the favourites, after polishing off "All the Presidents Men M2" in our 1st place vs. 2nd battle. Lets keep in mind here folks that last years winner of both SA's Elite and the tri state has been split straight down the middle to make the 2 teams that threaten to take the crown this year. Thanks to Adelaide having a public holiday on the first Monday of October, we'll be holding our 2nd round then and our SA winner shall be determined Thursday! That's right folks, we crammed 3 weeks of finals into a single week!

Ballarat is so soon it's not funny, and Kerry and myself will be there to stir the Premier pot, oh and play 8ball as well, but I'm sure by now you are well aware of my track record at tournaments. They usually end up with a massive hangover, I do beans at the table and I'm in trouble with someone about something. Good luck to all the leaguies from all the states entering.

The Nationals follow just after Ballarat, our prestigious SA team is practicing their little hearts out as we speak. All the best guys and gals, hope Darwin treats you well, and here's hoping this years new blood brings out the best in all of you.

We had a few finals in our social leagues over the last month, with some very pleasing results. Sunday Green League came to an end with the same 2 teams from last season (Special K & Stickmen) finishing 1st and 2nd. But it was our party animals Dean & Shane from Team Krazed that worked the hardest and came out on top. After finishing in 3rd place the boys won every round to find themselves in the Grand Final with Stickmen. Now being emo uni students, Stickmen seem to turn up whenever they want, but when they do, always put on a good show and normally come out on top. But not this time! Congratulations to Team Krazed, you guys did a great job all season, and I was very happy to see you guys take the crown. Singles finals was unfortunately no real surprise with Tory yet again taking out top honours. To be quite honest I was quite glad to hear Richard and Tory were having a season off - guys you've opened the door for everyone else now so cheers!!!

Everybody now need to start organising their teams for our mini Elite/ summer cash comp (whatever you want to call it) - teams of 3, no top level players allowed and yes you will be playing for cash!!! Get your teams together peoples so we can get cracking ASAP.

We've also got the Miss Q's Classic approaching very quickly, being held on the 4th and 5th of November. All of those of you that can take the trip over to the west I strongly encourage it - it shall be a week of festivities, with the Classic, The Melbourne Cup tournament that Kerry has also organised, and ending the week with the Premier Elite Tri State tournament. I shall have the pleasure of being there, so here's hoping that many of you can make the trip with me to sunny Mandurah. I think I've dribbled enough for this month guys, so I'll dribble more next month. Oh wait did I tell anyone that I got to go to Queenslad last month? oh I did did I.....

Lets win some free drinks!!!!

*Tell me who this fine example of a man is, and where he got his fabulous sweater from and you can score yourself a free drink!!! Or Ladies if you'd prefer, you can score yourself a date with this man!!**

What's wrong with his face? Tell me who this dickhead is and why his face looks so retarded and you can score yourself a free drink! An extra drink for those of you who can tell me his preferred weapon of choice for holding up servos.

Lessons on Life with Colonel Mustard

Here's 6 reasons not to fall asleep at Empire Pool Lounge after Leagues have finished.

1. Your nose gets coloured in
2. You get whiskers drawn on you
3. You get a cock and balls drawn on your forehead
4. You get taken to McDonalds and made to order food before you've looked in a mirror
5. Your nickname changes from Colonel Mustard to Colonel Raccoon
6. Your photo gets taken and put in the newsletter.

Meet the Jerry Maguire for 2006!

The loveable giant in this photo is the new Jerry Maguire for 2006, the guy just cant close a deal.... Lets take last night for example, "jerry" went home alone after striking out no less than 4 times. We love him, and just because he's slept for most of his life there's just no reason why it doesnt happen for him. So if you like long walks along the beach, playing cue sports one handed to impress girls, and hanging around with a guy who eats broken glass for fun then give us a call here at Empire and we can fix you up!!*

*Callers must be 18 or older

Premier Elite Update

Meet team The Backyarders.

You know I'm not even sure that this team has a captain, and I think Wayne is the only man that shows up every week. The rest of the team seem to sort of rock up whenever they please. Consisting of Colin Laoutaris, Wayne Rollinson, Mark Warry, Andrew Bosman, Anthony Obst, Johnny Koutrikas, Brad Richmond, and Matty Webber, these guys are certainly a strong side when they're all present. Always keen for more than a few drinks, these boys are at least good value - well they make me laugh anyway for one reason or another. With many promising players these guys should shake things up when it comes to finals. Providing they all show.....I think it should also be noted that they cant even keep 6 of them together at one time long enough for me to take a photo - cheers to the ring ins!

Meet Ya Mamma!

I know what you're thinking - "I already know my mamma!", but this is the team to beat in 2006. Made up of Dave Ewing, Chris Lilly, Richard Lamont, Jason Tucker, Dave Glover, Wayne Jones, Michael Drozdowski and Damien Walsh. Half of last years winning side sits nicely in this team, with a few added bonuses, and this stellar team has done extremely well to slip under the radar in regards to Elite's new restrictions. Working well as a team these guys are very very keen to take out top honours this year, and I'm not really sure whats going to stop them (other than a few broken fingers that is).
