Miss Q's

ROCKS HALLOWEEN 2011

If you missed Halloween at Miss Q's this year you missed out! A great night was had by all in attendance, there were costumes galore around the room in what was quite possibly the the best turn out of costumed leaguies Halloween @ Miss Q's has seen so far. The room was decked out in fine form as usual, all thanks to the amazing talents of Emma and Naomi who as usual continue to go one better than last year with the decorations, this year leaving no corner of the room untouched by spiders, black cats or ghosts, a big well done girls for an excellent job as usual. As mentioned earlier the costumes were very cool and Emma and Kez had their work cut out getting the crowd to pick the best dressed male & female so we had people to give the awesome prize packs to courtesy of Greenfields Liquor Store but eventually we had ourselves some winners in the form of the creepiest damn clown I've seen in a long time not to mention his partner in crime who also wore a thoroughly convincing costume showing up dressed as a cave woman hairy legs and all. Well done Zac and Dizzy hope you enjoy your GLS prize packs. Next came the Junior Boys & Girls prizes and these were won by two of our star juniors in the form of Witch and Zombie well done to Stewie & Holly-Jane both of whom took home a Miss Q's Halloween Show-bag for their efforts. Their were many other costumes worth a mention but a picture says a thousand words so head on over to missq's.com.au and check out the picture gallery to have a look all the pics from the night, there's many more than we can fit in the newsletter this month with all the winter elite finals happening speaking of which, gotta say a huge well done to the

Monday Elite finalists who played while all the foolishness was going on with Jayden dressed as a cow running around the room like a real cow with Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease (Mad Cow Disease) Not mention Benji who looked like he had actually been dragged under a car for hundreds of meters and all of the sexy angles and devilettes getting around making it difficult to concentrate. Finally for everyone that attended Halloween and for those who missed out, if you think Halloween was good you are definitely not going to want to miss this Saturday with Miss Q's Silly Games Night there's four teams already selected and ready to do battle for the the title of Miss Q's Silliest People, (Bah ha ha!) the last one of these we had here my ribs hurt for two days from laughing, best entertainment $15.00 can buy I kid you not people.
