Vol 12. No.11 December 2011

Editorial:

Wow November certainly kept us on our toes! What a bumper edition, featuring the Elite Carnival round up, the Silly Games Championship & the Junior Midget Assassin Results at the States. First & foremost Jarrad Page & his Mighty Shlong Dongers need to be congratulated for their first Carnival Championship Title, a truly awesome Season & Carnival effort. Also Evan Briggs who won the Singles Championship & Player of the Carnival, a credit to a great sportsman, well done. And to Rosa Chour nominated Best & Fairest a well deserved winner gentleman of the game.

Our Juniors also made their mark with congratulations going to Scotty Brownrigg & Pera Isabeth, both qualifying for the WA State Team going to the National next year, a brilliant effort from them and all the Juniors that had a go this year, good job midgets!!

Then there was our amazing Deco Queen Emz, who had the Silly Games Competitors in a spin & the audience in fits of laughter as 16 competed for the Silly Games Championship Title, well done to the Pink Bits!

Still to come, the MPF 13hr Fundraiser, the Gossies Challenge, the 2011 Mens & Ladies Champion of Champions, League Presentation Party, the Xmas Cup Cash Comp & the Infamous Members NYE Party. Check it all out in this issue.

As 2011 draws to a close, I reflect on one of the most amazing year of Miss Q's Premier Pool Leagues to date. This years Leagues have enabled Miss Q's to boast the best Pool Comps in the entire Peel Region! I have seen newbies join the ranks of regulars & flourish on the tables in no time at all and what a pleasure it has been to share everyone's achievements throughout the year.

The Miss Q's staff & volunteers have done a sterling job, Az, Ma, Suzie, Pagey, Stewie, Emz & Rio, you guys Rock & Miss Q's wouldn't be the coolest place in town without you all, Thanks! To everyone that has been a part of Miss Q's behind the scenes & on the tables, thank you all, have a terrific festive season & I look forward to doing it all over again in 2012. Ching Ching.....

Happy Potting

Miss Q's Midget Assassins at the 2011 Junior States

Saturday 19th of November saw a crack squad of Miss Q's Midget Assassins assemble for breakfast nice and early at Miss Q's before the road trip to Dianella to see if they could qualify for the WA Junior State Team, who would be travelling to Canberra in January 2012. As it turns out all of the Juniors travelling as part of the Miss Q's Crew did us proud with two of our Midget Assassins finishing in the top two of their respective age divisions, Pera Isabeth finishing as West Australian Runner Up Champion in the Under 12's and Scott Brownrigg taking out his first title in the Under 15's also as a Western Australian Runner Up Champion, both Pera and Scotty making a return to 8Ball after taking the best part of a year off, other outstanding players from Miss Q's on the day were Stone Stenhouse Under 15s who in his first attempt placed 3rd beating last years U15's Champ Mikey Read and Jarrad Nagtegaal Placing 4th after losing to Geraldtons Ben Foster in a playoff for 3rd and a spot on the WA side. I'd like to say a big well done to all the Miss Q's Juniors who attended and competed in the State Trials you conducted yourselves fantastically and proved yet again that any Junior in a Premier Elite shirt is a force to be reckoned with. Next thing on the agenda is getting these Midget Assassins to Australian Capital for the National 8Ball Titles and that's where you come in, this Saturday the 3rd of December Miss Q's is holding it's famous 13hr Fundraising Marathon to gather together the required funds to send these kids away so they can realise their dreams and hopefully win themselves an Australian Title. So come on down buy a sausage sizzle get your car washed play some crazy games or simply hire a table with your mates and play pool. Lets send these Juniors away!!! See you all there. Cheers Az.

Scott Brownrigg U15 R/U

Scott It was a Saturday morning when I woke up and was feeling reasonably excited but not expecting very much in the junior state trials.

My dad (Barry Brownrigg) dropped me off at miss Q's and wished me good luck for the day as he was not going to be there in Dianella were the competition was being held, I was being driven down by Aaron Goodridge and accompanied by Jarrod Page, and Rochelle Mulroy.

When we arrived, just on time, I was fortunate enough to verse Holly Jane (and yes she beat me) but I was still on track and ready to play some pool. When the competition started I was versing Ciara, and with a few of my lucky shots and a few of her unlucky ones, I claimed both of the two games off her, that happened for the next four to five competitors that I versed until we arrived to our half an our lunch break.

Once the lunch break was over I only had to verse another three people, but as I approached the table to find I was versing stone stenhouse, I knew this was going to be a great couple of matches, sure enough it was, we both won one game off each other and I was no longer undefeated (sneaky little bugger). But I still carried on with a smile on my face until I versed Jacob Sumner who I knew was going to be tough to win against, as we were fighting for the matches he won the first off me and I won the second, I did very well not to lose both matches as he is a very good player. When the day was almost over I had one more competitor, Georgia Read, and I won both of the games off her which made me 2nd position in the under 15's state team, also a position to travel to Canberra and to compete in the junior nationals for under 15's which I am looking forward to.

As my name was called to claim my trophy I had only just realized what I had accomplished that day, I was thinking to myself as I looked down the barrel of the camera, I could really start to get used to this.

The one thing I played for that day was not for the trophy, the photo or the congratulations at the end, all I played for was to have fun and I believe I can do anything if I play as if it was for shits and giggles it makes the whole experience a lot of fun with no pressure and in the end I didn't do half bad. Thank you to Aaron, Kerry, Stenhouse and Shalako Isabeth for taking me and all the other juniors down to compete in the trials, congrats to everyone who competed, they all did a very good job and tried there hardest and best. Wish me luck in nationals. Scott Brownrigg :P

2011 WA Junior State Titles in Their Own Words...

Pera Isabeth U12 Runner Up

On the 19th of November I went to Perth to try out for nationals. When I arrived to Miss Qs Kerry and Az were there and Kerry and Az were having a chat to all of us about what was going to happen in Perth. When we left to Perth I was with Holly-Jane and Malo in their car. Once we got there me and Holly-Jane had a practice

Rochelle Mulroy U15

There is so many things I could say about the Junior State Trials, yes they are all positive things :-). Waking up early after the most decent 9 hours sleep I could have and getting up at 6am, I ate breakfast, knowing Az and Jarrad were going to know if I hadn't because my stomach isn't exactly quiet when empty. Surrounded by tired and nervous people at Miss Q's, we settled for a group photo and split up into groups for our little convoy to Perth. Changing our minds because we can, Jarrad and I went with Az and Scott for the trip. The car trip was pretty funny, considering I was the only girl in the car, it actually was a lot of fun being with the boys and talking about everyone and everything. Without getting lost, which can quite easily happen when in Dianella, we arrived at the prestigious Limited Editions

Kiarah Shuttleworth U15

When we arrived at Miss Q's it was around 7 am. When the rest of the people arrived we all had a few games to practice. Az then explained to us what was going to happen for the rest of the day. When we all arrived at the Dianella pool hall we grabbed all of our stuff and went inside. Rochelle and myself jumped straight onto the tables. Just before we all had to get started Az wished us all goodluck for the rest of the day. After the first round fatigue was starting to set in, but luckily it was time for a lunch break. By the end of all the games and the end of day we were all getting really tired, but overall it was a great experience and I can't wait until next year to do it all again. Kiarah Shuttleworth :)

Holly Jane Vaaelua U12

Hi this is Holly, I went to the State try outs and I won 5 games I had a great experience it was a fun day that I will remember. I've have learnt a lot of new skills.

Thank you for all those for supporting me and for my Dad for being my biggest supporter. Bring on the states next year here I come.

game to be prepared for what lied ahead. The guy who ran it had a chat to all of the contestants and told them what was going to happen and who we were playing first. I had to play Stella first and on the first game I won and then she won the second. I had to play Alex next and I also won one from him which then put me at 2 wins which I was pleased about. I then played Jayden and I also won one game from him. We then had a lunch break but after that I played Tahlia and won 0 from her. Next I played Zac and everyone was saying he was easy to beat which made me happy and I thought I had a chance when I only won 1. That then put me up to 6 wins which made me happy because I thought I had a chance at coming 2nd or even 1st. My last player was Holly-Jane and I ended up winning 2 games from her which made me confident about what position I would end up coming. Then Tahlia and I had a chat to see how much games we won and it turned out she won one less game than me. The man running it took me aside and told me I came runner up and I'm going to Canberra and kind of screamed a little and had a giant smile on my face which made the guy who ran it laugh. Me and Stella then had to wait for the presentations and wait for our trophy. It came to presentation time and me and Stella were excited and couldn't wait. Next thing you know it our names got called out and I was embarrassed because a lot of people were taking pictures of me. We then left to go home and I was happy because I get to go to Canberra and had my trophy.

hotel where the trials are held every year. The nervousness in my stomach returned, and it was like a repeat of the year earlier. With the much more recent experience of the Ladies State Trials in September this year and knowing what to expect from the tables and the competitive atmosphere that flies around, it was so much easier on me, a huge weight lifted off of my shoulders that you could call nervousness. Walking in as a full group from Miss Q's with the room staring, it was pretty cool. Plus, seeing how there was some of the same players from last year returning to play off again was really good to see! In round two, I was against Scott Brownrigg, my nemesis who I intend to beat one day, yeah that's right, you're going down sooner or later Scott. This round was one of the rounds I have been expecting to be quite difficult, and since I have improved compared to last year I am trying to prove that fact. Of course, I lost both games to that little freak of a player who was playing much too good considering how much time he had taken off haha. It was pretty intense games, a lot of fun and I learnt quite a bit by watching and picking up on what he was planning out (Which I tried to mess up whenever I could.) The day continued on, with me getting an average of 50% out of every match. Which annoyed me, but it was better than 0 so I was quite pleased with that much haha. During the break times, I was forced to eat barley sugars and bananas to wake me up from the tiring state I was falling into. So, up and energised with everyone else keen and competitive for the second part of the trials, we all were back on the tables. You could tell the pressure had been taken to a whole new level now that the day was halfway through and that every point counted. I went with the flow, put in as much effort as I could although I was having a rough week with my aiming action and pace haha, but I had so much fun! In the end, Scott and Jacob took out the spots for Canberra for the under 15's, well done guys! And Pera claimed runner up for the under 12's, GO PERA! Everyone did so well and it was a great day, I can't wait until next year when I will be hopefully so much better with a lot more training done. Thank you to Az, Kez, Malo (For the really good brekky! Haha) Jarrad, and so many more for your support throughout the day and thanks especially to Az for training me and making sure my head stays down :-). So keen for next year! Catcha around! - Rochelle Mulroy

MPF 13 HOUR FUNDRAISER

Saturday Midday to 1am: Hire a table with your friends & we donate all table hire income to the MPF. Bring a dirty car & have it washed by a Midget, buy a lotto number or enter the fundraising pool comp at 7pm. Contributing to any of these things will help raise cash to get the kids to Canberra for the National 8 Ball Titles next year. See you all Saturday...

2011 Premier Elite Carnival Championship

The Most intense & exciting Carnival weekend with a record 8 teams participating for the first time. Carnival began with the traditional Singles Championship. The tournament was fantastic with a Youth V Experience Final between Stewart Lambert & Evan Briggs. The results were 4 -2 Evans way adding the title of Premier Elite Singles Champion to his ever growing repertoire.

A neck & neck Teams event followed & tested the endurance & stamina of every contestant. Thanks to our great Chefs, Az, Andy, Jabba & Rio the Leaguies were kept fed & watered from morning to dusk to morning again as they did battle & focused on nothing but the game for the entire weekend. Everyone saw out all their matches and only two missed the presentation, congratulations to all, an amazing effort! The Shlong Dongers pulled away in the last two rounds of the Carnival & took their first ever Premier Elite Teams Championship, well Captained by Pagey & deserved Victory. Player of the Carnival was also scooped by Evan Briggs, quite a terrific effort, good job Evan :-)

A Big Well Done, to the entire player base on their sportsmanship, camaraderie, humour & fantastic spirit over the weekend, I congratulate you all and look forward to the 2012 Season :-)

Champion Team 'Shlong Dongers'

Well now another year is hear for the Shlong Dongers and after finishing runners up last year can we pull off a win this year?

Basically started with most of last years team, Shutts, Jabba and myself then just adding John and Shaun and most of all Clif still the rock in the team haha. Its was a tough weekend I have to admit, and to the teams credit they stood up a lot this year and improved immensely, we got off the to a flyer this year , the first few three rounds we scored 50 plus in the round! It gave us the best possible platform to have a crack at winning the weekend.

So the fourth round saw us take on Thanks for Plan B, and knowing that we need to score at least 30 points to still take a comfortable lead we did that JUST. It was a long night we finished at 2:30am we were absolutely buggered. The next day we had the Old Farts and for the fourth time we scored another 50 plus round and by that stage we had a big lead with only two rounds remaining. Then from there we never looked back and being patient and winning as many frames as possible to secure 1st Wooooo Hooooo .

It was a really good carnival we had lots of fun as a team and playing as one as always lol. There was lots of great match play and hope were all there doing it again next year, well played all! See you all next year! - Pagey - GO THE SHLONG DONGERS

Runner Up Team 'Thanks For Plan B'

The Season: There was a tough competition going on in the top four spots of the Sunday League. Colin Fender's team, "Thanks for Rock'n Up", always looked the goods and finished in second place on the ladder despite the occasional absence of team members. Fender worked very well with his team mates, Kevin Sexton and Jarrad Nagtegaal and their support for each other could often be heard right around the room. My own team, "Plan B", held the top spot for most of the season through the combination of good games and fielding a full team almost every week. Eliot Aloysius and I played full seasons while Rob Stewart and Ian Payne shared the third position. We all played together the previous year so I knew we would work well.

The Finals: Our two teams met in week one of finals to decide who progressed straight through to Carnival Weekend. While Plan B made a game of it in the early frames, Fender showed us all why they were the favourites to take out the Sunday league. After they flew away to victory, I quietly informed Kev that I would see him in the grand final. Two weeks later, we met Stewie's superb DTF Guppies in a nail-biting semi-final. I would say we were 7-1 underdogs here but I had a plan and I knew we could win this. One frame away from victory, Rob made a difficult cut for the black ball and succeeded to take us into Carnival Weekend. As promised, we met Thanks for Rock'n Up in the grand final but such was our relief in causing such a massive upset that we sort of fell flat and got stomped by Fender's Sunday champions.

Carnival Weekend: The amalgamation that became known as "Thanks for Plan B" was a very strong force in Carnival Weekend. Our first three matches went our way but Pagey's lot were simply more damaging.

Our fourth match, against Pagey, was possibly our most impressive. We were the only team to beat them that whole weekend, and it was a convincing win too. That put us in striking distance to knock them off the next day but unfortunately it wasn't to be. The All Sorts had a shockingly strong team and took advantage of our early morning form slump but for the last two matches we played stronger than we had done all weekend. Unfortunately it was too little too late. Pagey's Shlong Dongers had it all wrapped up and we would have to settle for second place this year.

Experience: In the two years that I have been at Miss Q's, I have wormed my way into two Carnival Weekends. This year's was certainly much more of a marathon than the last one but I love pool too much to be dissuaded from aiming for the win next time. Colin Fender was an excellent captain and clearly knew what it took to win. These round-robin formats are definitely my favourite because it means that nobody gets an easy draw and a lost frame is not the end of the world. I thank "Thanks for Plan B" for giving it a hearty go and congratulations to Pagey and his team. I am glad you finally got your win.

3rd Place Team 'Premier All Sorts'

84 games per person and 28hrs+ time to play them can we say INSANE !! But incredibly enjoyable, long and tiring but enjoyable.

I had the great pleasure of captaining the Premier

Allsorts team. Morris, Holly-Jane, James and I were lucky enough to make it into the Allsorts through Friday night elite singles. We then had to patiently await the results of the Friday night carnival singles to see who would be alongside us for the great battle. Az, Evan and Stewie made it through and I couldn't have been happier I love these guys to bits. We had a ball the whole weekend together. Of course there is a serious side to an event like this and we all worked hard to get there.

Evan was out for blood lol by the end of the weekend he had the Master Break comp under his belt and Player of the carnival!!! Congrats Ev.

Holly-Jane !!!this shy 8yr old girl blossomed so much over the weekend and she had some of the big guns shaking in their booties whilst she was at it. Holly-Jane you played so well hun Congrats. Az and Stewie you guys are machines, I don't know how you did it but not only did you play awesomely you kept everything looking all spick and shiny. You guys were completely exhausted but still showed no mercy. Thank you so much. James, Thank you for being Holly-Janes other half and for being a trooper whilst waiting for your games. You played some huge matches. Morris my love, I thought I had seen this man sleep deprived before but alas I was mistaken. I knew he was getting exhausted but when he turned to me and said he was a tree because after 16+ hrs of play he wanted to 'leave' I thought yep he has finally cracked. Like everyone else we were exhausted but happy with earning 3rd place only just missing out on 2nd place by 12 games, Thank you to all the other teams it was a great weekend and a pleasure playing you all. Emz - Premier All Sorts

Hi everyone, I am Rosa team capitan of The Fluky MoFo's and I am here to talk about carnival weekend. Carnival weekend is amazing, its about 30hrs of hardcore pool over the 3 days (friday, saturday and sunday)

To start things off is the Friday carnival singles which all players from all winter elite night are able to participate in a test to see who is best on the night and the winner went to Evan Briggs with runner up Stewart Lambert, congrats both players. Then Carnival saturday and sunday, started both days off with brekkie thanks to Az, Andy and Jabba with amazing BACON and eggs :-) thanks guys!! then is was straight into 12 hrs of amazing pool playing by all teams and team members each day which gave us a team champion The Schlong Dongers capitan Jarrad Page, congrats an the awesome wins guys. I would like to thank the Miss Q's Team and a special thank you to KEZZA!! did a fantastic job in running this hectic event. I encourage all players to join up and form an amazing team for next years winter elite, it is an experience not to be missed. I would also like to thank my team members on a FANTASTIC FORTH placing considering most were newbies great job guys and hope to see you in the future. Alright Peace out Y'All. Rosa - Fluky Mo Fo's

5th Place Team 'Awesome Sauce'
L-R: Michael Millar, Captain Rob Stewart, Nicole Hindmarsh & Sandy Bozanich. (Missing Dave Chaffer & Brad Phillips)

Well another year down and another carnival weekend battled through! This last year I managed to score some very strong players from the social singles league, as well as getting my sister Nicole on my team as well It was a very good season for me and the 'awesome sauce' - another off the cuff team name from myself. Over the course of the season - we dominated both the teams and singles ladders. In the top ten of the singles, we had five out of our players! We had the top player in Dave Chaffer - who was impossible to catch all season, as well as the top scoring female in the league; Sandy who only just missed out on fifth position being edged out by Jarrad Page.

We managed to slug it out in the finals and take first position in the Monday league, taking on some very talented players. Carnival weekend this year was on a whole new level - Two additional teams were qualified and meant two more rounds were played for each team - a total of 84 frames of pool to play for each player! What a difference that made overall - each round was taking longer to play as well - the level of play was incredible; and all teams played incredibly well. It was also a very close ladder through carnival between the lower teams - and probably one of the closer matched carnival line ups overall.

I am totally stoked with my team and incredibly pleased with how we went overall. Thanks to the Awesome Sauce for such a great season - it has truly been a great one!

Rob Stewart - Awesome Sauce

6th Place Team 'Old Farts'

Hi Andy here (Old Fart), Carnival time again 7.30 breakfast, pool 2.5hrs sleep, breakfast & pool. 29 Hours of play, after battling on Saturday we were in third place, come Sunday we ran out of steam and ended fifth, not a bad result for a decrepit bunch of old timers.

Long hard games and very tiring, but a great weekend none the less. Thanks to Ma, Ken Arthur, Killer and Lucky Phil for being there and staying the distance, (just). A big thanks to all the teams that took part and for the crew at Miss Q's for the work and dedication to make it happen. Thanks to all for being good sportsmen and women and see you all again next year. Andy - Old Farts

7th Place Team 'Tit's McGees Pink Bits'

What a full on weekend! 28 or so hours of pool in two days!! Was a fantastic effort by everyone. The pink bits were down a few players but we were able to snag a couple people from the singles on a Monday and what a team we had. Each team we played were strong and it was a test to Everyones ability to play out the entire weekend. Congratulations to the shlong dongers and well done to to the pink bits!!

Suzie Gibbs - Tits Mc Gees Pink Bits

8th Place Team 'Stenny Specials'

The Stenny Specials thoughts on carnival weekend, it all started on Friday with singles it was a long night didn't finish till 1am, then had to get up early Saturday everybody played to the best of their ability and had a good time we secured 8th spot for the whole day bloody good matches all round and awesome breakfast, then came Sunday morning too bloody early (need my beauty sleep lol) breakfast again then onto match play everyone was a little tired but again they a great day of matches fought well and had a good time all in all the Stenny Specials would too thank everybody who made it possible 4 us too play Stenny Specials out. Damien Stenhouse

Rosa Chour Carnival Best & Fairest

Silly Games Championship 2011

16 people, 52 ping pong balls, 12 oreo's, 8 streamers, 4 toilet rolls, 24 coat hangers, 4 60cm long straws, 4 pedometers, 20 playing cards, 4 cereal boxes, 4 50c coins and 1 miniature shopping trolley. What does the equal ... a crazy, funny and hugely entertaining night for all involved.

secs. John was the only successful player to get an oreo from his forehead to his mouth using only his face muscles. Matt undid 2 rolls of streamers in an incredible time of 5.88secs.

I was lucky enough to be able to put together 13 mentally and physically challenging games for my 4 teams of eager players. Each team playing hard to be crowned Miss Q's first Mini Games Masters. We had some amazing records set for example Kieran and Kristie managed to hang 6 coat hangers one to another in the centre consecutively in an amazing 15.15 secs. Also Jayden was a champion at Bobble Head in which he managed to nod his head 181 times in a minute that averages 3 nods a second !! Our very own Ma drank a glass of water through a 60cm straw in just 12.75

At the end of the games the overall winners were the Pink Bits (Ma, John, Jayden and Doonbug) due to a tie an insane rock off decided 2nd and 3rd, 2nd place went to The Green Machine (AMY, Kieran, Kristie and Chris) 3rd place the Asylum Runaways (Dave, Damo, James and Matt) and in 4th place was Jetski and the Katz (Jetski, Benji, Shutts and Sal).

A big thanks goes to Greenfields Liquor for supplying us with some awesome prizes. A huge huge Thanks goes to my players, with out you all of my planning and hard work would've been wasted, nights like these make all the effort worth it!! - Emz
