Vol 13. No.2 March 2012

Editorial:

The big news this issue is that the Gossies have one up on us in the new challenge series, that leaves us the next three to catch them, without forcing a playoff between Boss Man Antonio & Az! The Gossies came to Miss Q's with a mission & that, they accomplished final scores 167 – 113 with Gossies John Grazziadelli taking player of the match. Congratulations to all of the Gossies, a mean mean effort! We look forward to catching them all at Gosnells Pot Black in May of the next challenge.

Also this month we saw a resurrection of the Silly Challenges, with Kahli & Zhygi in the Mop Challenge, William & Karmen in the Cops & Robbers Challenge and the all important Wiggle Off! Check the pics & results on the back page & I look forward to the up & coming Challenges scheduled in March.

On a more serious note, March signifies the end of the Summer Elite Season. With team & singles finals looming everyone is starting to pay attention to the ladders & work out what needs to be done to gain the best finals draw. All the very best to everyone competing for the $9000.00 prize pool!

The Winter Elite Season will be starting in mid April with a Monday & Wednesday Introductory Level night for teams of 3 players & Advanced Level Nights for teams of 6 players on Sunday, Monday, Wednesday & Thursday. Registration & information flyers at the bar.

Also a real treat for our girls on March 7th when Suzy Bussanich, Australian Champ, comes to Miss Q's to share her knowledge with us all. Don't miss this one off opportunity!

In closing a very special wish goes out to our Deco Queen Emma Turner & her soon to be hubby Christopher Morris, to have a super awesome engagement party :-)

Happy Potting

Gossies Do It Again!

After a cracking Team Qualifier on the 11th of February the following week came around quick smart and Sunday the 19th was upon us with the Gosnells Team arriving in full force (Antonio pulling all Strings it would seem.) seems we rattled them at the last challenge somewhat (only 10 frames from a win on their home ground) and this time they had a point to prove. After a practice and pleasantries dispensed with the game play was officially started and as always the first round was close this time with Gosnells leading the points charge 9-11, Grrr first blood to the enemy. Round two saw much of the same Gosnells pulling away a couple of frames at a time and then in Round three Miss Q's pulled it together and didn't allow Gossies to widen gap but alas we didn't close it any either. As the day rolled on Miss Q's kept their heels dug in not wanting to allow a single win to slip away unchallenged but still their team pulled away at a rate of a couple of frames per round, towards the latter part of the afternoon whilst I was playing at the back of the room there was a cheer loud enough to stop all play, I looked up to see our very own Midget Assassin Holly-Jane receiving Hi Fives from a crowd of spectators from both sides at least 20 strong, after she played what I'm told was an excellent game to take one of Miss Q's favourite scalps Marchiandi Hami well done Holly good job and well done Marchi, not many people could handle getting beaten by a little girl in front of their team mates and smile about it, I'm glad to be able to remind everyone mate, cheers :-). Ha hahaha, Okay..... So on the day went with the Gossies team slowly beating us into submission and eventually securing the first win of the year to take our trophy home again, the final score falling securely in Gossies favour 167-113 a total of 54 frames the difference. Player of the Match came down to a playoff between two Gossies Players Dave Barker and John Grazziadelli both players finishing on an impressive 13 from a possible 14 wins with the eventual winner and Player of the Match being John Grazziadelli, Well done John. The top Players from Miss Q's were Dave Schaffer and yours truly finishing tied on 10 wins each for the day, well done Dave & Me. With supper and presentation out of the way Antonio collected his crew and "Our Trophy" and went back to Gosnells where his type belongs. Attention Miss Q's Leaguies dunno about you guys but I'd prefer not to have to degrade myself for Antonio's pleasure yet again at the end of this series keeping in mind we still have to pay up for last year's failure (Bloody Disco) I hate Disco! So Q's pull your fingers out, let's win this year's Challenges and make Gossies do something horrible as payment! I won't be dressing up again and I don't wanna have to buy the entire Gossies Team a couple of Rounds to get out of it next time bullets are getting more and more expensive all the time. Till next time, - Az.

Improve Your Pool with Coach Az

Pic 1: Correct Bridge

Pic 2: Incorrect Bridge

This month's coaching tips cover two of the many do's and don'ts of bridging. Do create the strongest possible foundation for your cue to rest on (As shown in pic 1), this will help ensure that you hit the white where you're aiming. (Provided the rest of your cue action allows the cue to travel in a straight line.) Don't bridge off your knuckles (pic 2) this will lead to you pushing the ball into the cloth as opposed to across it and it will more often than not end badly. More hints & tips next month :-) Az.
