Miss Q's Midget Assassins at the 2012 Junior States

2012 Western Australian Junior State Trails were held on the 17th of November at the Headquarters of WA 8ball in Dianella. As Miss Q's renowned for we attended with a field of juniors all intent on having a go, there were quite a few new faces this year in the Miss Q's ranks and a few who are these days becoming veterans at this event all of whom were super keen to bring home some titles. Firstly in the Under 12's there was Alex Kingsbury, a relative newcomer to the Miss Q's family Alex is no stranger to the Miss Q's crew having played against us numerous times over recent years in the Gosnells Challenges but recently saw the light and defected to Miss Q's to play in our leagues and will hopefully feature in our side at the upcoming Gossies Challenge :-) anyhow Alex successfully smashed the field at the trial and beat last year's winner Stella Kearney to secure his first ever State Title Under 12 Western Australian State Champion, Well Done Alex :-) Holly-Jane hot on Alex & Stella's heels came in a comfortable 3rd Well Done Holly :-)

The Under 15's was a battle ground with the biggest field this year and some top line faces either missing completely or having moved up to Under 18's competition was tough, Stone Stenhouse dominated the field this year as I suspected he might and secured the Under 15's Western Australian Champion Title with the Runner Up going to Mikey Read with Rochelle Mulroy finishing in 3rd after winning a marathon playoff against Daniel Kew in his first ever attempt at a State Title, A BIG WELL DONE to both of you Congrats and Well Done Stone :-). In the Under 18's Kiarah Shuttleworth and William Holmes both in U18's for the first time played well, but alas the titles were destined for more seasoned campaigners The Champion Title going to Keenan Cigler and Runner Up to Ben Foster, Viet Thai 3rd well played guys Congrats. Now the prep starts for these guys on their Nationals Campaign in January 2013 at Empire Pool Lounge in Adelaide and that's where you the person reading this comes into this, Starting with the annual 13hr MPF Fundraising Marathon on December 1st, come down get your car washed, hire a table, challenge a Midget Assassin & play some games like pot the lot or just reach into your wallet and donate some loose cash for the cause let's get these Midgets to Adelaide and see if we can help them bring back an always elusive National Title. So Come On Miss Q's lets help our fellow Leaguies realise a dream..... Catch me at the Bar for more info. Cheers Az.

On Saturday the 17th of November I went to junior state trials in Dianella it was an early morning my unc picked me up. When we got to miss qs all the juniors where practicing I had a couple of worm up games with my bro before it was time to go. My unc, mum, brother and me traveled with shuts it was a long drive when we got there I had a worm up game with Kiarah. Then it was time to start my first game was against rochell I took both games of her I continued tacking two antill I played mike he took one of me and I lost against three ather people after those three games I won the rest. then I had to wait for the rest of the games to finish when the results were in. under 12s Stalla r/u Alex champion under 15s r/u Mike champion me under 18s third place Viet r/u Ben champion Kennan. - Stone Stenhouse

Hello, my name is Alex Kingsbury and I tried to make the Under 12's Western Australian state team. The event was held on the 17th of November. To start off the day I had some practice games with my dad to get warmed up. Surprisingly, this year only 5 kids (including me) came to try out for my age group. My first game was against a boy, named Judd, who I beat 4-0. He was really unlucky in the last game because he missed a shot on the black. My next game was against last years W.A champion Stella Kearney. To be able to beat her I had to play really well and that is exactly what happened. I ended up beating Stella 3-1 which I was really happy with. My next game Continued from

was against a boy, named Neil who I beat 4-0. My next round I had a bye so Dad and I went to the shops their and had lunch. When the next round started I had to play Holly-Jane, who is from Miss Q's, and I had to win 3 out of 4 games to win. The games were really close and the score was 2-1, to me, before the last game. In the last game I won and became W.A champion for 2012. That means that I will be going to Adelaide in January for the National Australian Championship with Stella. I had a lot of preparation for it because I have been playing at Miss Q's and at Pot Black Cannington and Dianella. I am very happy with my result. I would like to thank Aaron for letting me play at Miss Q's, Kerry for supporting me a lot and most of all my dad. I hope I do well at Nationals. Thankyou!

Rochelle

Hello ladies and gentlemen! Its Rochelle here, to share with you my experience of the Junior State Trials!

I was impressed by the amount of under15's challengers this year, wow! Upon arrival I knew every single player would perform at such a high level, it'd be a day where anybody could win in each of the three divisions.

At times the pressure was overwhelming and at other times the feeling of victory was amazing. By the end of the day, I was a tie with another Miss Q's player; Daniel Kew. In a playoff for third and also the spot to be the reserve behind the champion and runner-up, three games were played to determine third place. Those games I have to say... were the best games I was faced with for that entire day and in the end, I came out the winner. Such a fantastic playoff! Runner up was Mikey Read and finally, our very own Stone Stenhouse came out the champion of the under15's! So proud of your efforts and how far you've come in the past few months to be as good as you are today Stone!

I'm so proud of how I played today, as well as the u12's and the u18's too!

Well, that was my last year in the u15's, next year I will have to play in the u18's! I aspire to be much better when I return next year so watch out ;-) See you around the tables guys! - Rochelle Mulroy

Tyler

It was Saturday morning at around 7:30 am I arrived at Miss Q's with my dad. I had a few practice games with my Dad and Daniel who was also going to the state titles, after about ten minutes Az called us all in to explain what was going to happen during the day and gave out some sheets for directions to get to Dianella. I went with my Dad with William, Daniel and Kyle. It took about an hour to get there but we missed a turn so we had to take a detour. Once we got there Az took us in to fill in the forms, once we finished filling the forms Kez and Az forced everyone to eat a banana :-) William and I hopped onto a table for a practice game, after having about three games the day was about to start. We were told that you play two games against every person and one break each. My first opponent was Daniel we both won one game. I played some more games then it was lunch so we went to red rooster when we came back Daniel, William, I and my Dad played a game on the snooker table. After the lunch break we all went to see who we were going to play next. I got to meet lots of people and learn new things in that day. after the awards Daniel, William, I and my Dad went back to the snooker table then packed up to go back to Miss Q's. It was a great experience. I didn't go up there to win only for fun and the experience to play better players around my age, thank you Az and Kez for teaching me new things and supporting me through the state titles :-) Tyler Brown and I lost my fare share. But that didn't shake my confidence and I started playing at my best in the middle of my games. Everyone I went up against I got to play two games with them and they were all very friendly. Kyle Rosenthal

On Saturday the 12th of November I had the pleasure of travelling with some of the other members of Miss Qs to Perth to VS other juniors from WA it was a very good experience for my first time there and everyone had a great time. I tried my best but they were more experienced than me

Daniel

My names Daniel Kew and on the 17th of December I attended the Western Australian Junior State tryouts in Dianella.

I went to the tryouts because I thought it would be a good experience, and I was keen to see how I would go in the under 15's.

On the day I came equal 3rd, which I didn't expect to get because it was my first time at state level. I thought it was a great learning experience and any new juniors should defiantly give it a go.

Holly Jane

On Saturday I went to State Trials I went with Az and Kerry I tried out for the under 12 I was nerves at first I released I had to verse 5 people Stella Neil Alex and Judd I versed Neil I won 3 games I had a bye next I played Stella I tried my best but I lost it was hard I played Judd I won 3 I versed Alex last I won 1 at the end I herd the good news I was happy and proud of my self I came third that meant I was a reserve I am so happy of myself. Holly-Jane Left is William Holmes - his first & last year in Juniors just scraping in at 17 3/4 years, he will play as an adult next year.

Kiarah

Once again it was time for junior state trials. The nerves kicked as soon as I stepped foot in to Miss Q's.

we practised on the tables for about 20 minutes then packed our cues and jumped in the car ready for a long car ride to determine our 'pool futures'.

It was my first year in under 18's and I was very worried knowing who was in that age group, and that I was also the only girl. Before the lunch break I had come out with winning 3 frames which I was very proud of. We all had a short lunch break and came back with more determination than ever. By the end of the trials I had one 5 frames, to which I am very proud of. This juniors has shown me to never give up and to play the table not the player. At the end of the day all players, Miss Q's or not, played exceptionally well. Special congratulations to stone Stenhouse for under 15s state champion, Alex Kingsbury for under 12s state champ and Rochelle Mulroy for placing 3rd in the under 15's. Kiarah Shuttleworth

2012 Premier Elite Carnival Championship

An Amazing Premier Elite Carnival Weekend Conquered, Recorded & Celebrated!

This was by far the most exciting & well fought out Carnival in Miss Q's Premier Elite History. After 48 of the best of this years Elite played 4032 games of pool over 2 & 1/2 days it was incredible to find that only 10 points separated the top two teams and 1 point the individuals!

Congratulations to Jarrad Page, Captain of the Shlong Dongers on his Teams back to back victory over a fast developing Team C.R.A.F.T Captained by Aaron Goodridge :-)

Pagey, Cliff, Shutts, John, Jabba, Shaun & Tristan played consistent pressure pool & had the most stamina to back up their 2011 win but recognition must go to Az, Jayden, Scotty, Rochelle, Dave, Brad & Rosa on their results especially considering two of their players are under 15's.

A young Kim Buchholz tasted Victory for the first time taking out the Carnival Singles Championship with Rosa Chour placing Runner Up. The vastly experienced Jarrad Page also won the the super close battle for Player of the Carnival finishing on 68 wins & 81 percent pipping his vice captain Cliff Risk by one frame! Andrew Crocker backed up his 2011 success with another Best & Fairest Vote from his peers, quite amazing really!

A totally thrilling weekend of Pool, congratulations to all 48 finalists, everyone truly out did themselves :-)

Hi guys and girls, this year's winter season was the most closest yet, and the results proved that.

It all started Thursday night for the Shlong Dongers as we had team semi and grand finals to play in which we held firm against a rampaging Team C.R.A.F.T who took us all the way to a sudden death playoff. With that aside the next night was the start of carnival, we drew team wo...man we got huuge cues first, and we played well enough to win that 47-25. The next morning saw us come up against team C.R.A.F.T again and it was just as close as the final with us just winning 37-35. Anyway I will skip to the end of the day which saw the Dongers only one point from first place in the teams. The boys once again could see the finishing line if they played well the next day, and play well the next day they did, because in the end we just need to hold off team craft and we did to take it out again by ten frames. It was such a good carnival weekend the frames where all close, the whole entire room seemed to embrace one another and new friends were made, as well as good times had by all. Let's hope this can all happen again next year it was a blast. Hope to see you all next year. Pagey

Team Craft: Line up, Captain :Az, Jayden King, Dave Chaffer, Brad Phillips, Rochelle Mulroy, Scott Brownrigg, (And Introducing Hired Gun Rosa Chour.)

Carnival Weekend for Team Craft started with the Thursday Night Elite Finals (Semi & Grand) the night before Round 1 of Carnival. In the Semi we knocked out Rosa's Team to go onto the Grand to play last year's winners The Schlong Dongers and what a match that was going all the way to a draw before losing in a sudden death playoff and taking 2nd place for Thursday Elite 2012, nevertheless we were through to Carnival. Round 1 of Carnival was played on the Friday night this year for the first time and in my opinion this worked very well and let us all get some much needed sleep before the first big day got underway. The one thing that was apparent was this year there was three teams all well and truly in the running for the big purse at the end. It was gonna be close and at the beginning of the final day of play the three top teams were starting to separate convincingly from the rest of the field. Team Craft had already played our arch nemesis team The Schlong Dongers on the Saturday and again it was close again losing by only one frame. (Grrr would have liked to have won that.) Anyway the top teams now had started paying special attention to the singles ladder all seeking the 'Player of the Carnival' Title and this was even closer than the teams ladder with some impressive play from mentally & physically exhausted players in the last half of the final day's play. Mindblowingly at the end of play there was only 10 frames separating the top two teams and 1 frame separating first and second in the singles congrats to Pagey on taking out the title in a field that tight well deserved result. In closing I'd like to thank my team who came through and played well all weekend on occasion under trying circumstances to place 2nd to the Schlong Dongers AGAIN! (At least it wasn't by one frame or a playoff lol) Also would like to thank everyone who played and made this Carnival one to remember. Cheers Az.

The Season: The Horde of Gord' were full of confidence in the lead-up to the season. We felt we were shoo-ins for carnival weekend... Then Az put together the "All-Stars" team. We held the top spot for most of the season and worked out that we would be more likely to have an easier finals draw. Gotta avoid risks and just get to carnival!

The Finals: Things looked less than certain

So, I guess I'm here to tell you all about carnival weekend. Well what can I say?

That it was a good weekend? That it was a good challenge? That it was good fun had by all?

See how I used good 3 times there?

Well if you guessed yes to any of them then for a while but in the end the Horde managed to dodge the Skidmarks and Thanks for Rocking Up in the semi-finals. The team we played were definitely there to win though and overconfidence almost cost us the match. Luckily my Horde dug deep and we got over the line. We made it to Carnival!! We then played the Grand Final against the Skidmarks... We lost.

Carnival Weekend: This year there were three standout teams rather than just one or two. I felt that the Horde would need to set a realistic aim and while we would have loved to win the whole thing, fourth place was more within reach. Going into the final round, we were one point behind team WoMAN for fourth and they were our ultimate opponents. Things were very tight for a while but soon we found ourselves falling behind. It was all going wrong! While WoMAN was a team laden with talent, I knew that we really ought to win this... just. I practically begged my Horde to find something and snatch the win. Finally the 2s started rolling in and we got to the stage where we needed only one more frame to win. Andrew took to the table. He had a fight on his hands and on his penultimate shot he left the white... awkward. "A bagatelle," he thinks as he smashes the black for a ridiculous face-cut triple that had me freaking out! He won and THE HORDE WON!! (Fourth place).

Experience: This is my third Carnival in as many years at Miss Q's but it is really my first as outright captain. I am glad we changed the format; it was much less tiring than last time. Thank you Andrew, Jayden, Nomes, Rob, Stenny and Zac for getting us to Carnival and thank you Jesse, Liam and Wiseman for you invaluable contributions on the actual weekend. Without you, there would be no Horde. Gordon Payne you would be correct.

It was a long and tough weekend but this is where I wanted to be after the long winter elite season. I was lucky enough to be on the team that finished 4th.

Well to be honest I don't know what else to say. So I guess I'll just end this here with a big thanks to Kez for putting this whole weekend on.

From me. (Hopefully there's a photo so you can see who it is) If not; my name be Jesse

Wo MAN We Have HUUUUGE Cues - 5th

Our team was the combination of 2 Monday night Winter Elite teams, 'We Have HUUUUGE Cues!!' and our team, Wo M.A.N. We formed a great team for carnival after finishing in 1st and 2nd place at team finals. The 2 teams that had been rivals for the winter season came together and formed 'Wo M.A.N. We Have HUUUUUUUUGE Cues!!' Consisting of Storm, Stone, Dooney, Nadine, Amy, myself and not to forget our fantastic sub Gaz. We were all pumped and ready for a fantastic weekend of pool which is what we had. Everyone enjoyed themselves and the new format for match play made it less exhausting than last year. This year's line up of teams showed what talent we have at Miss Q's and how everyone's game has improved. Can't wait to see the line up in 2013 !! Thanks to all our team members for all the support, encouragement and good sportsmanship, and a BIG ' THANKYOU ' to Kez for another awesome Carnival!! Cheers, Ma/ Andrea

King Ranga - 6th

So another year of winter has concluded, and what a way to finish the season off with a massive carnival weekend. After around 30 hours of pool, some very intense match play and by far some of the best experience on offer after this immense weekend, The 'Schlong Dongers' placed first retaining their crown. Team 'King Ranga,' Comprised of Adam Caldwell, Zach Meads, John Taylor, Mytch Beveridge, Killer, Daniel Backman and myself Hayden Johnson entered as a team this year, placing 6th overall.

entire team that this year's carnival weekend was a highly enjoyable weekend and would like to thank all that entered for an amazing weekend fulfilled of pool related knowledge and most of all enjoyment for all.

Cheers all, from the pen of the vice captain Hayden Johnson.

I think I can safely speak on behalf of the

of admiration and respect when I realised how talented and skilled my team mates were. Our veteran ladies held their own against many of the better male players while our girls like Holly Jane, Kiarah and Tamara had hearts of lions and impressed spectator and opponent alike with their fearlessness and tenacity on the table.

slippers, hair-curlers and all. Some good lies include, "Sorry I'm allergic to flannel." or "Sorry, I sleep naked."

Anyway, in closing, I'll like to congratulate the winning teams and also thank Kez and Az for putting together such a stellar event. Now if you excuse me, I'm late for my pedicure, catchya guys later. ~Han

Now after spending an entire weekend with my team, I feel qualified to offer some advice to guys thinking of being part of an all-girl team in the near future. Other than being good-looking, you will require the following 3 pre-requisites:

1) A good sense of rhythm: You will find the Charlie's Angels theme song constantly playing in your head everytime you come to the table.

Bobbing your head or tapping your feet to the beat will actually make your pool stroke smoother and more rhythmic. Even if you end up looking like an idiot.

2) A tub of Haagen Dazs and a romance novel: At the end of each day, you will find the inexplicable urge to put your hair up in a towel and curl up on the couch with said items. One Direction CD, optional.

3) The ability to lie convincingly: There will come a time in the competition when your team mates will try to force you to don the team uniform, which happens to be PJ's, bedroom

First I would like to thank all the staff at Miss Q's for making this event happen. It was a really great weekend, irrespective of where we finished we all had a good time and learned heaps from the most experienced players. We were all nervous at the beginning but at the weekend unfolded we started to loosen up (after a few drinks). Our performance was great except it didn't show on the score how well we played. Congrats to the winners The

Premier ALL STARS Gold Team 2012

The 2012 & second generation of Premier All Stars, spent the year experiencing a sponsored season of serious match play in the Fremantle West Coast 8 Ball League. They received a coaching session from the well accomplished John Russell, participated in the City All Stars Challenge Match & worked on their games at Miss Q's in various training sessions to assist those wanting to take the next step in developing their game and sporting ambitions.

As a group the All Stars achieved spectacular results with the Gold Team Winning the League outright, the Black Team Winning the Consolation team event, Aaron Goodridge winning the Leagues Most Valued Player award for finishing on top of the singles ladder & Jayden King & Jack Collins coming Runners Up in the League Doubles Championship & Stewart Lambert coming Runner Up in the League Singles Championship.

Mission accomplished I'd say :-)

Premier Academy of Cue Sports

Then came the icing on the cake! It's not often that I can say someone out did us on an event, but the Freo League organisers certainly know how to put on a Presentation Party as we all experienced on Saturday November 17th at the Portuguese Club in Fremantle, the night was an absolute hoot!!

Drinks flowed freely, the food was in abundance & to die for, so yummy, entertainment was totally original & hysterical, The Trophy Presentation was humbling & a Grand Final video & picture slide show topped off a sensational season of pool!

A massive thanks to Craig Davies of the Fremantle West Coast 8 Ball League who coordinated a terrific show with the very funny Michael Hale Hypnotist, who had us all in stitches as he had several of the players under his spell including our mate from Gossies 'Marchi Hami', who danced like Michael Jackson & much more for our entertainment! So much effort went into this great night & everyone had a blast!

Congratulations again to the Amazing All Stars who scooped the pool in almost all the award categories, you have done Miss Q's & yourselves so Proud :-)

I look forward to seeing where you go with your games in 2013.
