

Editorial:

Lots of Fun & Games in October with Kristies first ever Fear O Phobia function & our infamous Halloween Party co ordinated by the new Deco Queen Tamara Baran, both social events were a smash hit with the Miss Q's Leaguies enjoying a little light hearted fun after the intense Challenge match play of the previous two months. A BIG congratulations & thank you to both girls for their terrific effort, everyone had a blast as you can see from all of the pics.

From here on we are down to the nitty gritty of the 2012 Premier Elite League Seasons with all league nights currently in Finals & fighting it out to be a part of the all prestigious Premier Elite Carnival Weekend. All of this years competitors can be seen in the pics in this issue. First up this weekend in the Premier Elite Carnival Singles Championship where players from All the elite nights will Compete for the $1000.00 cash Prize pool & ultimate Title of Champion. Good luck to everyone competing.

Teams Carnival then kicks off on Friday November 9th & the marathon of match play continues right through to Sunday Night when we will know the Champion team for the year & divide up the $10,500.00 Prize Cash Prize Pool! Survival of the fittest is the only way to describe the carnival experience & I am look forward to seeing our best bring on their best!

Also to come this month on November 17th is the Junior State Trials where we hope to see our Midget Assassins rise to the top & make the WA State team heading off to SA next year to Compete in the Nationals. Good Luck Midgets!!

And the last event of the month is qualifying for the last Gossies Challenge for the year on Saturday November 24th, this will be the first Challenge of the new seris so let's dig deep and get a win on the board :-). Oh yeah is Jack & Corona on Special this Mont too, Wahooo....

Happy Potting

FEAR 'O' PHOBIA

What a night! All of our competitors had stomachs of steel! 10 teams of two competed for the championship of the first Fear-O-Phobia night. This was a night that we held our own style of Fear Factor games.

None of the gross foods and challenges seemed to phase our competitors, even though I tried my hardest! Everyone went above and beyond the required tasks - the cockroach race transformed into a cockroach feast! What anyone would do for 50 bonus points hey? So when the last cockroach escaped, competitors chased it around the floor of the poolroom, stumbling and fumbling for a chance to get the last points up for grabs! From the jelly tug-o-war, the shots of eyeballs, brains and crickets, to the egg toss and chubby bunnies, there were non-stop laughs! All competitors went their hardest and fastest and so it looks like next year we will be needing to raise the bar! It came down to a draw for 3rd and 4th places, so naturally a gangnam style dance off was in order! Between the red team Morgs and John and the gold team Kieran and Kale, the red team reigned with their impressive dance moves!!! 2nd place went to the Pink team Shutts and Pagey and the champions of our very first (but many more to come) Fear-O-Phobia night was Paul and Garth.

A huge thank you to the competitors, spectators and staff especially Tamara, that made my first event a very successful one and look forward to seeing you at the next! Cheers, Kristie.

:-) Halloween Happy Snaps :-)

When the moon emerged on the last night of October, a crowd of witches, devils, vampires, blood sucking zombies and various other frightful creatures wondered into the doors of Miss Q's. Whilst the spiders spread out their cobwebs and the thirst of these creatures was strong, it was the devil (Kiara) and the boned hand man (Kyle) who took out the competition for the best dressed adolescents. On the other end of the tables where the adults battled out their hunger, the pulled tooth (Wade) and the wicked witch (Sharon) came out on top, satisfying their thirst with the category of best dressed male and female. We had some amazing prizes to hand out to the participants this year thanks to Greenfields Liquor Store and Coca-cola; nobody went home empty handed. Special thanks to Kristie and Rhiannon for volunteering their time to help me decorate the venue and to all the people that made an effort to dress up and really make it a spooky night, I would not have been able to do it with out your help. Thank you everyone for making this event so enjoyable and hope to see you all at the next crazy event. For the people that unfortunately did not make it down, I look forward to seeing you next year when the ghosts come out to play. - Tamara
