

Play the Table

Editorial:

It's only two or three days the difference but damn February fly's by perhaps it's because we jam it so full of stuff there's no time to breathe. February saw some Miss Q's Leaguies try their hands at Snooker during the Oceania Fundraiser Comp and all participants got some matches on the second day very cool :-). We set ourselves to forming a team to take on the Gossies Ghosts and the Challenged them a week later and got thrashed :-). (Then there was Miss Q's first ever Casino Night which was a massive success and huge wins and losses of Monopoly money were seen eventually won by Kyle Thompson, plenty of people can't wait for the next one. We have been flat out setting up this years Winter Elite on paper and it's looking like it's gonna be a doozy so if you haven't got your name down yet come see me at the bar and lets make this the best season ever. Next month March kicks off with a bang starting with Pizza Pool Night on Friday and being followed up with a Public Holiday Cash Knockout and a Massive Snooker Exhibition put on by some of the finest players WA has on offer, so come on down and check out the action and join in the comp no better way to spend a day off. Summer Elite Finals also starts this coming week with Sunday & Monday Gold manning battle stations with Wednesday & Thursday following close behind. We've also got the long awaited City Allstars Challenge Qualifier and Challenge on the 9th and 23rd it'll also great prep for finals guys so get amongst it. The end of this month sees us undergo my first Winter Elite Orientation your not gonna want to miss that one followed by Easter and the ever popular Glow Pool for Earth Hour. Busy busy busy..... Arrrrrrghhhhhh!

Gossie Ghosts - A Haunting Experience

The 17th of February saw the continuation of the fantastic competition between Miss Q's Pool & Entertainment Centre and the newly formed "Gossies Ghosts Team" created from the players left after the sad departure of Pot Black Gosnells from the WA 8Ball scene. The team arrived promptly ahead of the scheduled start time for the eagerly awaited the Challenge Match, with Gossies one and only "Bossman" Antonio at the helm keen to guide his team toward a win. The Matchplay started promptly at midday and was fierce. The Ghosts were back with a vengeance and in the first round stamped their authority setting the tone for the remainder of the following rounds. It seems Gossies missed us so much that in their excitement they forgot that the way to treat old friends is not to create a bloodbath, maybe I should have explained that during the intro before start of play. By the time the 6th round had come around the Ghosts had created what has to be record lead that was just shy of 50 points and with only five rounds to go things didn't look good for the Miss Q's Team but still we battled on seemingly oblivious to the systematic slaughter we were suffering.

Gossie Ghosts Team Challenge Champions

Come the end of play with 14 rounds out of the way the scores stood as follows, Gossies 169 – Miss Q's 91 a whopping 78 point thrashing quite possibly a record score, well done Gossies Ghosts and well done Antonio, congratulations on a very convincing win. The Player of the Match went to a playoff between 3 Gossies players who all finished on 12 wins from a possible 13 massive effort guys, the playoff was eventually won by Peter Cliff, congratulations Peter well done. In closing I'd like to thank everyone who came and played on the day and made my job of running the comp so easy cheers guys, also a big thanks to Antonio and his Ghosts for still managing to pull it together and form a team without still having a home base, thanks and congrats to the Miss Q's team for making my job easy and keeping your spirits high all day and fighting all the way to the end, well done. I personally am looking forward to the next Challenge scheduled for mid August 2013 it can't possibly take me six months to find the phone number for "Ghostbusters Inc." It's either that or we need to do our own Exorcism It'll be time by then. Cheers guys' Az.

Casino Night with Amy, A SMASH Hit!!

Hi Everyone, Miss Q's first casino night was awesome and so much fun! I was really nervous about how the night was going to go, but it turned out Miss Q's crew enjoy gambling as much as me!

All players received $150 play money at the start of the night to bet on Roulette, Black Jack, Poker and Killer and Kelly Pool. Jesse Caldow was the first to loose all his money, after being up $300 he lost it all on Roulette! Luckily we allowed people to buy back in. Towards the end of the night rumors were flying around about how much money Nellie and Damo Stenhouse had so it came down to Kyle Thompson's last bet, he new he had to bet big to win so he placed a $700 bet on Black Jack and won!! He took out the night winning 1st place and Ian Payne finished a very close 2nd and Damo finished 3rd.

We had some great croupiers, Brent Williams on the Roulette Wheel (no more bets!), Michael Shutts on Black Jack, Aaron Barford on Poker and Tamara on Killer and Kelly Pool. The croupiers really made the night and I thank you all for your help.

There will definitely be another Casino Night with a new roulette wheel and some more games. Thanks again everyone who helped the night run so well. Amy :-)

Oceania Snooker Fundraiser Great Fun!

Miss Q's Leaguies hit the Giant Tables for a Worthy Cause

The first weekend in February saw some of the Miss Q's Leaguies spread their wings a bit and try their hand at Snooker and for all concerned here at Miss Q's it was our first real go at a Snooker comp not to mention one hell of an eye opener. The match play was not what you'd call impressive here at Miss Q's but when we all got to the city on Sunday and succeeded in getting knocked out in the first round we all got the chance to watch some of WA's best go toe to toe for the big prize a return flight to Papua New Guinea for the 2013 Oceania Championships and boy did they go toe to toe. The Q's Leaguies got a firsthand look at how the big boys played on the real tables, speaking for myself there was a massive amount I took away from the experience and it seems to be the popular opinion from all the leaguies that participated in the fundraiser. I am also glad to have exposed some of Miss Q's Juniors and adults to a new scene a new game and a new way of thinking that can be applied to the game we all already play not mention wetting some appetites for something new that stands to expand our horizons. I personally am looking forward to much more play in the future on the 12 foot tables, and look forward to starting Miss Q's first snooker league in the next month or two for everyone interested, so stay tuned and if your keen register your interest with me at the bar. Speaking of Snooker This Monday public holiday coming the 4th of Feb for anyone interested there will be an Exhibition Match here at Miss Q's featuring the winner and runner up from the Fundraiser Matt Bolton & Steve Saxon as well as Peter McCullach and Paul Bunt starting at 2pm plus a Midday $20 Cash Comp being played on the other side of the room which is shaping up to be quite a field of players, ought to be a good day. See you all there. Cheers Az.

:-) February Happy Snaps :-)
