Editorial:

This newsletter is a combination of three months of Miss Q's news and we'll start with Carnival, a massive weekend of 8 Ball and the ride we all want to get on. It didn't disappoint this year with a new format and new Champions for 2013 decided. A big congrats to Team 'Guns & Rosa' as well as to 'Rosa (I Won Everything This Year) Chour' himself on a job well done. From Carnival to the Junior State trials which saw three Midget Assassins return with State Titles and now preparing for the Australian Junior 8 Ball Nationals in mid-January in Melbourne. Next saw a successful 13hr Fundraising Marathon a big thanks to all came and helped out in every way on the day. The 2013 Champion of Champions played out and all new names appear on the Honour Boards there was no junior crowned this year but they proved they didn't need a comp of their own with Stone Stenhouse winning the Men's and Holly-Jane Vaelua placing 3rd in the Ladies event that was won by Suzie Gibbs. Next a Challenge Match against the City All Stars Team Congratulations to Steve Saxon and his team on the hat-trick and also to the Miss Q's team who went closer than ever before to winning the Challenge. While all this was happening Kerry was away representing Australia at the World Snooker Titles in Latvia and giving her all. Then Xmas Presentation Party came and went followed by Xmas itself and on the other side of that the Xmas Cup Cash Comp. On New Year's Eve the Crew partied the night away and now in 2014 The Chuppa Chup Cup will see us all Qualify and Challenge the Geraldton Team on their home turf. If all goes according to my cunning plan, we'll maintain possession of the Chuppa Chup Cup after winning what hasn't been won before in Geraldton. The New Year will see the reintroduction of the Introductory Elite Leagues and accordingly captains it is time to start doing some recruiting in order to fill your sides, those who are keen to Captain a team of new blood come and see Az, Kez or Andrea at the bar and lets make this the biggest and best year of Premier Elite yet. Stay tuned for a new and exciting games night that will be making it's debut on Saturday the 18th of January it will be a new spin on some old concepts, and then in February we will take on the Gossies Ghosts for the first time in 2014 and revisit the Miss Q's Casino Night and we all know how much fun that is so stay tuned. It's great to have you all back safe and sound after the Xmas New Year period here's to another year on the tables we all love. Cheers everyone, Az.

Premier Elite Carnival Championship

The long journey to Carnival Weekend 2013 began in mid-October with First round team finals this year and then carried us all the way through the League Singles and right up to the Thursday Elite Grand Final which happened the night before Carnival Weekend started. Carnival Singles this year (held the Saturday before) was a great field of quality players yet again with the Champions Title for 2013 going deservedly to Rosa Chour with Stone Stenhouse Runner Up leaving Ricky Wilton in Third Place and Suzie Gibbs picking up the last of the cash on offer for the night and as it turned out wound up earning her a spot on Team C.R.A.F.T this year for Carnival. Once the finals series of the 2013 Premier Winter Elite Leagues had finished & the teams representing their respective nights of Elite had been decided & consolidated they all gathered on the Friday night at Miss Q's for the first round of the Carnival Teams Championship. Once the formalities were out of the way the players hit the tables in what was a new and exciting format. The new format was a full team's round robin which decided the top and bottom groups and their seeding positions for what would be a top group and bottom group team's knockout with the top two teams from each group getting a double chance. Considering this was the first time this format had been tried at Carnival weekend it ran seamlessly and the feedback from the participants was very positive so format looks like it is here to stay. From both a player and spectators standpoint it definitely seemed to keep every team in the points chase for the duration of the weekend as opposed to other years when it seemed that the lower placed teams gave up a little once there were two or three definite runaway teams on the ladder, it also gave a very intense Grand Final match to both halves of the draw with both Major and Minor Grand Finals. This year the top teams were all very closely pegged and evenly split with three top teams and three bottom teams and at the end of the first stage of play there was only 21 frames between 1st & 3rd and in the bottom of the field only 34 frames between 4th & 6th so it was going to make for an exciting final stage on the big dollar day. In the end after ruthless finals at both ends of the draw the victors had been decided and the placing's were as follows. Carnival Singles Champion ($500), Player of the Carnival ($300) & Captain of the Carnival Champion Team the 'Guns & Rosa' collecting $3600.00, an amazing effort indeed. Runner Up in the Singles was young Up & Comer Stone Stenhouse ($250), Ricky Wilton was pipped at the post for player of the Carnival & 'Team C.R.A.F.T.' placed as Carnival Team Runner Up collecting $1800.00. Third Place in the Teams went to last years Champs the 'Shlong Dongers' collecting $1200.00, fourth to the 'Midgets with a Pool Problem' also the winners of the Minor Finals Title and made up of 3 of Miss Q's Star Juniors, Alex Kingsbury, Daniel Kew & Holly-Jane Vaelua, collecting $900.00. Fifth place went to 'Touching Balls for Beer' collecting $750.00 & Sixth to the 'Premier All Sorts', collecting $600.00." In closing I'd like to congratulate everyone who participated and look forward to seeing you all back at Carnival Weekend 2014 can't wait and if next year goes as fast as 2013 I won't have too. Cheers all, Az.

Team 'C.R.A.F.T.' L-R Stone Stenhouse, Keenan Cigler, Capt: Aaron Goodridge, Ricky Wilton, Jayden King & Suzie Gibbs

Hi all,

I'm sure everyone knows who I am by now, and if you dont you need to go to miss qs more often. I am Rosa, who captained the Guns & Rosa for carnival weekend. I will start by sayin, what an amazing season it has been, some great and some not great pool played by all. It has been a really fun season and I've enjoyed it very much. Now, carnival weekend was a blast!! Some fantastic teams and alot of fantastic people, my team and I throughly enjoyed the new format play on the weekend. Lots of pool played, lots of fun with great people. My team played exceptionally against Team Craft to make it to the grand finals, only to face them in the grand finals again. Plenty of great frames played in a nail biting grand finals match and my team Guns & Rosa came out victorious. This is our first carnival victory and I am very proud of my team, thank you boys (Han, Malo, Adam, Gordon, Spidie, and Damo) for an awesome season, and hopefully we can back it up next year. :-D

Congrats to team Midget Assassins with a Pool Problem for taking out the grand finals in their category and Well done to all the other teams who made it to carnival this year and I'd hope to see all y'all's next year, and a big thank you to Kezza and the miss q's team for running a fantastic weekend, and until then enjoy summer league's.

Peace out, Rosa.

The road to Carnival was a path and a half for Team C.R.A.F.T this year, it began when we arrived for the Semi Final with only 5 players and faced off against the team that had beaten us the last three years running, our arch nemeses The Shlong Dongers in the Semi Final. Team CRAFT stepped up and played really well catching the Shlong Dongers off guard a bit and in a tough match and with five players we pushed through to the Grand Final to meet another strong side Guns & Rosa who had had an amazing season this year. The Grand Final didn't go according to plan for CRAFT and after some early controversy we eventually were bettered by them in the Grand Final finishing the Bridesmaids once again :/ Nevertheless we had secured a Carnival position a feat that impresses me to this day given we were a player short on the night. Overnight Team CRAFT had picked up a new recruit for Carnival in the form of Suzie Gibbs and with a full side we set our sights on a carnival victory. In the marathon that followed we held our own well and battled our way all the way through our second set of finals in three days and again ran out of steam in the Grand Final finishing as 2013 Runners Up to the quality side of Guns & Rosa who played well all weekend to claim their spot on the trophy beside last year's champions the Shlong Dongers. Congratulations to everyone who made Carnival Weekend this year and I hope you all come back next year to watch Team C.R.A.F.T win the 2014 season and finally get our names on that trophy.

Cheers all, Az.

Carnival weekend summary – Clifton Risk

Carnival weekend is usually an excellent competition between the top teams in all elite league nights. This carnival weekend was no exception. I captained the Shlong Dongers this season in the Thursday night league, and being the reigning Thursday night champs 3 seasons running, and also the Carnival weekend champions two years running, we knew it would definitely be much more challenging this season to hold the title, and it was. We scraped into Carnival weekend, coming 3rd by beating the amazing women's team "Walk the Chalk" in a sudden death play-off, and Carnival weekend started the very next night. The different format threw a bit of a spin on things, but I was more intrigued than anything to see how it went, and it didn't disappoint. It was another marathon of pool over the weekend, with everyone performing well. My team played excellent pool, and we all enjoyed ourselves, as I'm sure everyone did. A big congratulations to everyone who played in a best of the best event, and a big thank you to Kez, Shaz and Sharise for maintaining the venue and, very importantly, the bar. Another great Carnival weekend has come and gone, and I can't wait for next Winter season to try and do it all again. - Clif.

2013 Premier Elite Carnival Championship

Team 'Midgets with a Pool Problem'
L-R Holly-Jane Vaaelua, Morgan Gould, Capt:
Alex Kingsbury, Brett Schutz, Daniel Kew & Kyle Thompson.

Hi, my name is Alex and I captained a team at the carnival weekend called "midgets with a pool problem". In my team I had Daniel, Holly (my Sunday night teammates), Morgan, Brett and Kyle. My team did well in the competition and we got along very well. With me being captain of the team, I had to try keep everyone together and supporting each other. I tried to play the best I could so I could set a good example for my teammates. When we played the minor grand final, our team knew that we lost to this team twice already. I had to try and keep everyone's heads up and keep us going to try get the prize. We started off not too well and we were down by a bit. We managed to come back and get it quite even throughout the match. We needed to win 3 games in the last three matches and we did. It was a wonderful effort from our team and I enjoyed playing with them. It was a great experience and I was lucky enough to get best and fairest as well. I came out of this competition with loads of experience and great memories. Alex (Capt).

A team made of two Sunday finalist teams brought together to create an awesome combination of players which started the weekend with a win under the leadership Captain Alex. The Second Day of competition was a rough day for the team that brought the mood of the team down but with great words spoken from Captain Alex which softened the team's hardship and kept hopes alive. The Third Day of competition Round Robin finishes the day of reckoning and created new beginnings for some of the players. The team was feeling good after a goodnight rest some were not but full guns blazing. With a few good results from the players saw the team make it thru to the Minor Finals which was played with great pressure and great skill from all players involved. The Carnival weekend was a great weekend but wouldn't have been the same experience without great team so big thanks to Alex, Daniel, Holly, Kyle and Brett. Morgan (Vice capt)

Team 'Touching Balls for Beer'
L-R Michael Wilton, Rex Kitto, Rob Hayes, Capt:
Storm Stenhouse, Jack Hayes, Codey Dekker &
Wade Wellington.

The nerves were kicking in as the shot on the black was being played, to seal our teams spot in Carnival. I could see his hand shaking as Jono feathered, then struck the ball, almost miss cueing and shooting wide of the corner pocket by about a foot. The 8-ball ended up in a pocket down the other end of the table, jaggng our place into Carnival! The skill of the teams and quality players were outstanding, as soon as the weekend began I knew we were fighting an uphill battle, however 4th place was not unattainable. Towards the end we were sitting on 4th place and had to play a team we had previously beaten, very convincingly to defend our spot on the ladder. Over confidence and complacency got the better of us and we were beaten by a few frames, placing us in 5th spot in the end. Rex and I were playing like muppets, however Rob, our star player, held up the team and played incredibly well with more than 80% win ratio. Well done Rob! Carnival weekend as a whole was an awesome experience, as it was my first carnival I have to say never, have I ever played so much pool in a single weekend, I loved it! Thanks, Rob, Jack, Rex, Storm, Michael & last but not least Codey :) you guys made it even more of a blast! - Wade

*Team 'Premier All Sorts' L-R Michelle Francis, Sharon Stenhouse, Capt: Hayden Johnson, Chris
Streeter, Cody Killer Sweetman & Andrea Turner*

Our team, the Premier Allsorts, was put together in the last few days leading up to carnival weekend. It was captained by Hayden Johnson with Chris Streeter and Cody 'Killer' Sweetman from Monday winter Elite and Andrea Turner, Michelle Francis and Sharon Stenhouse coming into the team from Carnival singles. We were all excited to be able to play in this annual event and prepared ourselves for a long weekend of pool. The 2013 line up of Elite teams were all very strong and we battled our way through to finish last but someone has to take that honour!! Well done team, we had a fantastic weekend, enjoyed every frame and hope to be there again in 2014. Thanks to Kez for giving us the opportunity each year to play in this event and thanks to all the players for your good sportsmanship and camaraderie. Cheers, Andrea/Ma

L-R Under 18's State Champions 2013 Champion Jacob Sumner Runner Up Stone Stenhouse Third Place Vakkas Ozhan

The Miss Q's Juniors made their presence known again this year when they attended the 2013 Western Australian Junior State Titles. The Western Australian Eight Ball Federation Headquarters in Queens Park was where it all happened today, the Miss Q's Midget Assassins were small in number this year but that didn't stop them leaving with Titles to their names. In the Under 12's Runner Up Holly-Jane Vaelua Miss Q's took 13 from a possible 21 wins finishing only 3 frames behind the Under 12's Champion Stella Kearney from Perth. Then in the Under 15's Miss Q's Alex Kingsbury Miss Q's secured the U15's Champion Title followed closely by Jasely-Jean Dimer from Kalgoorlie only 3 frames behind. Then Stone Stenhouse (Miss Q's) came home strong and placed Runner Up Champion finishing only two frames off this years Under 18's Champion Title which was well earned by Jacob Sumner from Geraldton with Third Place going to Vakkas Ozhan from Cannington Pot Black. So at the end of the day from Miss Q's, Stone Stenhouse Under 18's Runner Up Champion Alex Kingsbury Under 15's Champion Holly-Jane Vaelua Under 12's Runner Up Champion. Huge effort guys I am Super Proud Well Done! Stay tuned for more info..... Cheers, Az.

Under 18 State Runner Up

It was Saturday the 16th November and Aaron(Az) has just arrived to pick me up. Holly-jane Vaelua was already in the car as Az was driving us up to the Junior State trials. This year was going to be a challenge for me as i was stepping up to the under 18s. Az gave us a pep talk on the way up and it helped a lot. Once we arrived Holly and myself headed straight for the tables for a few warm up frames. After a few frames we were both quite happy with how we were playing so we went and filled out our registrations. Once all registrations were in it was time for matchplay. It was explained that each match would consist of seven frames and each frame was worth one point. This year Miss Qs had a Junior in each age group. Alex (who met us there) was in the under 15s. My first match was against Varcos and he beat me 4/3. I felt good about how I played and my second match against Corey I won 7/0. My next opponent Jacob i also beat 5/2. After that match i had a bye (free win) so i chose to have lunch. After lunch i had another 3 matches. The first one was against a guy who had played one handed most of the day. I won that match 6/1 and my next 2 i won 4/3. I was really happy with my matchplay over the day. As we waited for the scores to be tallied i went over to see how Holly and Alex had done. Holly had secured second place and Alex had won. Well done. Once our scores were tallied we were presented with or trophies. Jacob had secured first place with 31 points. A huge effort! placed second with 29 points and Varcos got third with 28 points. All three of us Juniors will now travel to Melbourne in January for the Nationals. I am hoping to place in the top 5 as hopefully then i will get invited to Worlds. In closing i would like to thank my Uncle Damien (Toothy) for taking me to Miss Qs in the beginning. I would also like to thank Kerry (Kez, owner) for the great centre to play in, Az (my coach) for all the training and support. Thanku also to my family and friends for their support, and the staff at Headquarters for their valuable time. Last of all i would like to thank all the players who participated, as without you there is no competition. Stone Stenhouse

Under 15 State Champion

Hi my name is Alex and I participated in the 2013 State Trials for W.A. In the morning, I got to HQ feeling like I had to play well to beat the under 15's. Last year I was in the Under 12's and I won it. I wasn't sure if I was going to win the Under 15's though because this is my first year. I played really well in the competition and finished with taking the title of Under 15's State Champion. It was a great day for me. I am going to the Junior Nationals soon but I am not expecting to win it because I am only 12 so I will have to play really well to beat the older players with more experience. I am looking forward to it and I hope that I can play well. Alex.

Under 12 State Runner Up

Hi I'm Holly Jane. on Saturday 16th of November Az picked Stone and I up we went to Perth to play in the state trials I tried out for the under 12. there was three other people there Stella, Neil and Lochie. First I played Stella it was 7 games we had to play. It was close Stella 5 me 2 then I played Neil it was unlucky for Neil 2 to 5 me. My last person Lochie this was really close Lochie 3 to 4 me. Then we finished they counted all the games me 2 Stella 1 under 15 Jayzee 2 Alex 1 under 18 Vakkas 3 Stone 2 Jacob 1 and we all get to go to Melbourne by Holly Jane

Premier Champion of Champions

The Champion of Champions Comp is a sizeable event here at Miss Q's every year and attracts a quality field of players and all of them want their names recorded on the Honour Boards more than they want the cash prizes on offer. Traditionally there is a Men's a Women's & Juniors comp all running side by side this year though the Junior field, low in numbers, all elected to join the adults ranks & produced some impressive results. The Field knuckled down for a quick practice while the Double Elimination Draw was finalised and when done everyone was sent to their respective tables for the two knockout comps. With both fields very evenly matched on paper & with last year's Champions back to defend their titles this was going to be an interesting set of results. Both Knockout's now running the competition was fierce and the atmosphere intense at both ends of the room but soon the field had thinned in numbers & the Semi and Grand Finals were underway. In the Ladies the field the Semi Final had come down to Miss Q's youngest player the deadly Midget Assassin Holly-Jane Vaaelua who obviously really wanted her name on the board V's Defending Champion Nadine White after a match that had the whole room on its feet and a black ball that would have given the win to HJ, Nadine went one step closer to defending her title once more only to meet Suzie Gibbs In the Grand Final. Suzie got off to a flying start and left Nadine to claw her way back into the match but this year Suzie proved too strong pocketing $500.00 for her efforts & now has her name immortalised on the Honour Board. Meanwhile in the Men's the other Junior in the field was patiently waiting in the Grand Final for an opponent from the Semi between Defending Champion Jarrad Page and Cliff Risk & after an intense match Pagey moved on to the Final to battle for the Honour Board place & the cash on offer. As expected the Grand Final was an awesome display of 8 Ball where a single mistake would cost either opponent a frame & in the end the Midget proved to be Mighty & seized his position in Miss Q's history and the $500.00 from last year's title holder. Congratulations to all who played and set their own personal benchmarks to better next year and a HUGE Congratulations to the Champions of 2013 well done. Till next year, Az

ALL STARS CHALLENGE!!

Saturday the 14th saw The City All Stars Challenge get played out at Miss Q's and what a challenge match it was. A terrible first round got Miss Q's off to an undesirable start but after that the troops rallied together and started their come back. The rounds flowed well all day and on the most part were very close with some excellent pool being played by both sides. The final tally for the day told the story of just how close the Miss Q's had come to stopping the City side getting their third win on the trot. Miss Q's 184 - City All Stars 210 which amounts to a 13 frame turnaround the player of the match went to Brendan O'brien finishing on an impressive 18 from a possible 20 with Steve Saxon close behind him on 17 wins. from Miss Q's Stone Stenhouse and Aaron Goodridge finished tied on 15 from 20. Well done to everyone who played and congratulations to the City Allstars side on third win in a row.

Thanks to everyone who came and played and to everyone who helped piece together the City All Stars Team, I look forward to seeing you all here again early next year so we can finally claim our first win and get our names on that trophy once and for all. Cheers, Az.

Oceania Snooker Championships in PNG To The Worlds in Latvia

2013 held the most fantastic Snooker Tournament adventures for me, all starting with the Oceania Snooker Championships in Papua New Guinea where I experienced my biggest learning curve & had my best result of the year. I lost 4-3 in the Semi Final to Geua John, PNG's 8 times National Champion, it was the most thrilling match I've played. The Oceania result earned me a spot in the IBSF World Snooker Championships held in Latvia just last month. I never quite nailed my game in that tournament, played some good frames but never posed a threat on the world stage. What it did do was inspire me to want to keep improving & competing in these major events, the challenge is hypnotic & I have definitely been bitten by the bug!

The experience of travelling overseas to a very foreign country with an elite group of Sportsmen, to compete on superb tables with the best in the world is something I recommend to everyone and if I can be there then, there is no reason why any one of my Leagues can't get there too, whether in 8 Ball or Snooker. How I did it? Participation. If you put yourself out there 100% and put the practice time in too, you all can get there, so have a crack!

Special thanks to so many people can't go unmentioned, so to my Amazing partner Aaron a massive thanks for holding down the fort & supporting my every ambition! To my Terrific, Patient Coach Jim Bonner, who's coaching skills & dedication to my advancement have been second to none! To my fellow Aussie players, especially those in WA who's support & encouragement has been astounding. To the Sporting Boards, that run the show at Australian, Oceania & World level, a million thanks as well for the jobs you do to enable these events & for the encouragement you provided me! To Pot Black North Perth & the boys, Vinnie, Nathan, Barry & Bayden who sponsored me many hours of practice time at their superb venue! And of course to my own amazing Pool Room, a huge thanks to Andrea, Suzie, Shaz & all the other staffies who helped Az run the show & to the Leagues that make Miss Q's the most amazing pool room in WA, their ongoing support & encouragement was more than endearing :-)

Have a FANTASTIC 2014 everyone, see you around the tables. Kez.
